#international investment law #investment claims #investor-state dispute settlement #bilateral investment treaties #foreign investment protection

The international law of investment claims governs the protection of foreign investments and the mechanisms for resolving disputes between foreign investors and host states. It encompasses principles derived from international treaties, such as Bilateral Investment Treaties (BITs), and customary international law, providing a framework for investor-state dispute settlement and ensuring the fair treatment of investments globally.
