Midweek Zap - Outside the Lines - Midweek Zap - Outside the Lines by Zara Altair 51 views Streamed 9 years ago 39 minutes - +Phil Bowyer breaks rules! His new book, *Color Outside, the Lines,* is coming out in September. We'll be chatting about rule ...

Introduction: Phil Bowyer

Coloring Outside the Lines, new book

Go inside to find your answer

Distinction between following and living your passion

Main premise: following external sources vs. living your passion

Find out if what you are doing IS your passion

Get honest about your business and the people you are serving

Example of an exercise in Coloring Outside the Lines

Start with what would I do if the bill fairy came?

Narrow it down to the one thing

Comments from audience

Blog discussion in relation to passion, author blog example

Living the passion is different from living the advice you get

Audience comments

The book helps with yes or no questions, it's hard to deny those answers

Go in with the intention of being honest and willing to change

Good to have a mentor to help along the way

How to get a copy of the book: leave a comment with a takeaway from the show

Audience comments

David F Leopold joins to ask question

Why can't we just go with the flow? David F Leopold

Business is about standing out. You can't solve anyone's problem without them knowing about you.

Contact with solutions without knowing pain points is not communicating.

How do you handle that situation? David F Leopold

Ignore a contact like that. It shows you don't care. There's no way we can have

New people, if they are making an effort, give them the benefit of doubt

Audience question How do you know the one thing.

If you hit a no answer in the book.

It's got to be the right thing when you are an entrepreneur.

Systems: 80/20 Rule. Not everything that is your passion is not something that you're going to be passionate about. Delegate out.

The stuff that we hate to do is somebody else's passion.

Audience comment

Phil's response: I don't agree that passion is something you craft and create. It's inside and you find it.

Passion is difficult.

Audience comment

Passion is not the only thing. The book is designed to put you on the right track

You have to align yourself with good people to keep you on the track.

Books are only as good as what you take away from them.

The audience for the book: existing and new entrepreneurs.

Audience feedback.

Breaking the rules before you know what the rules are.

Common sense is something we keep at a distance.

Everything does not have to be easy to be considered.

Last comment from David F Leopold: I believe you can passion about a lot of things simultaneously.
