I Love Story Telling

All of us are storytellers. I feel women are more adept in storytelling for it starts with talking even to a newborn about anything and everything she can think of. It is human nature to add different flavors while narrating an incident. The reader will find a generous mixture of the parables and satires, and also poems in this book. Words are the greatest gift to humanity; language is just secondary. This book is a cocktail of incidents and imaginations on the various facets of life. Some have messages, and some are left to the reader's conclusions.

Madhav & Kama: A Love Story from Ancient India

This is the story of Madhavanala and Kamakandala. Madhav, a handsome and accomplished young man, is asked to leave his city of Pushpavati: his looks and singing so distract women that they neglect their work, and cityfolk create an uproar about it. Exiled, Madhav reaches the court of King Kama Sena, the ruler of Kamavati, where he meets the bewitching courtesan Kama. The two fall in love but royal ire ensures that the lovers part. A heartbroken Madhav takes shelter in a temple at Ujjain, the city of King Vikramaditya. What can the great ruler do to assuage Madhav's pain? Can he reunite the lovers? This lively and colourful tale has startling metaphors, a candid narration of love and an ending that matches its evocative language. In circulation since the twelfth century AD, Madhav and Kama has been translated from the original Sanskrit text for readers in English for the first time.

Love Vs lust

"Love Vs Lust" is compiled by Rubleena Behera and Mayank Samantray, which is one of the achieving anthology books ever drafted, it objectifies on the vision of different opinions, classifications and perspectives from different people about both Love and Lust with little spicy comparisons. It defines the purity of bonds either with love or lust, depending on variable times like luck and karma of that individual.

Believe in Karma, Let your Fate tell you about your upcoming Tale. This socialized book describes the maturity and majority of coauthor's lifestyle either by creating sufficient sense of pure humor or taking a thought of needy break in life like KitKat-Break Banta Hai! Someone spoken so accurate proverb – "Where there is will, there is a way." This proverb defines the need of internal feelings which if an individual is willing to create bonds with emotions, here's what they can prefer better results which is drafted by our coauthors. No matter who wins, Love and Lust will always become the wildcard entry of every Love story.

My Heart Sings Your Song - A story of first love, family and destiny

My Heart Sings Your Song - A story of first love, family and destiny Book One - University Series - Reena & Nikesh Duet Now with Reading Group Guide. A book filled with Bollywood songs, comforting references to Indian foods. A boy meets a girl coming of age romance featuring the life of East African Gujarati families set in the '80s in multicultural Britain. When Reena met Nikesh, her head told her to keep away from the wealthy, charming playboy, but her heart had other plans. But Nikesh's persistence won her over, and she thought she'd found her Bollywood style happily ever after, despite their different backgrounds. During the summer holiday, Nikesh disappears when Reena needs him most. Can she avoid bumping into him when they go back to finish their final year? Will he try to get her to give him a second chance? Or has Sarladevi found him a suitable girl? The series continues with Reena and Nikesh at the birth of their first child, a story based on true events. Where Have We Come, Finalist The Wishing Shelf Book Awards. What readers are saying '[Saz] has a unique style of blending striking themes with her favourite songs, giving the readers a gentle feel of life and laughter.' 'A good-looking boy with brains, a beautiful smile and a love of Bollywood. Nikesh Raja has all the qualities of my dream man' 'easy to read and it was all too relatable ... I can still visualise the characters walking through University' 'This is a beautiful love story bursting with real life. The descriptions are so vivid that you feel you're living the story' 'Plenty of melodrama in this ultimate girl meets boy tale. Set in the UK, the main characters and their families are of Indian origin so many interesting references to culture, especially food' 'A beautiful book where every Indian girl who experienced growing up in England in the 80s can relate to' 'full of happiness and heartache in equal parts. The reference to parties, student life and songs was so good...really liked the food menus too, made my mouth water.' 'I fell in love with Reena and Nikesh with every turn of the page. Beautifully written, I felt as if I was living every emotional up and down with them both.'

Write Me A Love Story

The blue-eyed boy of Indian publishing, Abhimanyu Razdan is known for his bestselling romances, which move his readers to tears. PaperInk, an up-and-coming publishing house, is looking for an A-list author who will take them to the next level. So, when Abhimanyu's contract with his current publishers comes to an end, PaperInk decides to swoop in. But Abhimanyu isn't quite like the emotional and sensitive characters in the novels he writes. Callous, egoistic and drunk on success, he gets into a hot argument with Asmita, PaperInk's literary fiction editor, even before his first meeting with them. Already put off, despite her apology, he is even more incensed when he discovers that Asmita looks down on popular fiction, especially the kind he writes. He vows to teach her a lesson that could jeopardize her job. At each other's throats, Abhimanyu and Asmita are as different as can be, but fate has something else in store and they soon find that there is no running away from love.

Bilinguality and Literacy

The new edition of Bilinguality and Literacy argues that bilingual children's literacy learning in English is necessarily an intercultural process. Children's voices are strong in this revised, updated and expanded edition and looks closely at bilingual children's writing development in view of the Ofsted statement that 'fluent bilingual pupils struggle with writing (2003).' Bilinguality and Literacy will be of interest to undergraduate students of applied linguistics, teacher training courses, and academics researching multilingualism and literacy.

A History of Indian Literature: 1911-1956, struggle for freedom : triumph and tragedy

A 'Love Story' is made when one falls in love. But, when someone actually fulfills the commitments of love, a 'Fairy Tale' comes into existence. 'Two Broken Hearts,' is the heart-breaking love story of two school friends, Karan and Saumya. Karan, who glanced upon his love, Saumya, for the first time when he was only eleven years old. The very moment he saw her, he fell head over heels in love with her. But, as much as he loved Saumya, she hated him with equal measure. To impress the girl he adored, he not only changed himself but dedicated his entire life to her. And finally one day, they fell deeply and madly in love with one another. But as they say, good time doesn't last forever. Their love fell prey to the machinations of a selfish love, and the relationship they had nurtured together for years, trembled and fell apart in seconds. What would you do if fate decides to turn the tables on you, and forces you away from your plans to take up a path which you never wanted to tread? If the dreams you envisioned and desired are broken in a matter of seconds, would you stay and fight against your ill luck, or run away from reality, or accept whatever is happening? This book aspires to comfort those who are heartbroken, and make them realize that the end of a relationship doesn't mean the end of the pure emotion of love itself. Life does not stop after a break – up. Rather, it immediately moves on, though, living a new life, without the one we loved, can also seem akin to a walk through hell. This is not just a love story, but the success story of a boy who turned his pain into his strength, to reunite with the love of his life

5 College Love Stories

Endurance: A Droll Saga Originally Published In Gujarati In 1947 As Manavini Bhavai Is A Modern Classic. Set Against The Rural Backdrop Of Gujarat, It's A Fictionalized Account Of The Great Famine Of 1990, Which Had Ravaged This Part Of The World. Written In A Simple, Direct Style, Free Of Conventional Artifice And Sophistication It Is Not Crude Or Raw. It Is The Story Of Love Between Kalu And Raju As Well As The Story Of Hard And Tragic Life Of The Farmers In Indian Villages. The Translation Seeks To Retain The Essential Simplicity, The Rustic Flavour And Spirit Of The Original As Closely As Possible.

Manavini Bhavai

R.K. Narayan is a writer whose stories have enamoured my soul whether it was the rendition of stories on the audio visual medium or the books that filled my hands and mind with treasures of common and mystical. These stories are created in the simple yet magical world of Malgudi which has a wealth of peculiar characters straight out of a town or village in India; these common folk and their idiosyncrasies amuse and connect us with them in an incomprehensible way. We can analyse ourselves and our imperfections through reading their stories. These stories are a mirror to human frailties, thus, inspiring us to live rather than always trying to become better version of ourselves. Ambition, glamour, development, technology, competition, to grow big and do big is what has never touched Narayan stories...his characters live unperturbed in simple villages, simply enjoying every morsel and every conversation that comes their way. Indian myths and folklore form the bedrock of his stories. Simply told yet holding didactic messages through symbolic connect to mythology and Vedic and Puranic texts. A Narayan story is a sneak peek into the unpretentious common folk and their life and ambitions; wish the writer was presenting another story to us where how social media and digitization affects the amusing world of Malgudi would have been a treat to read! This book is an endeavour from my side to write about the contribution of Narayan to Indian English Literature and attempting a commentary upon some of his remarkable works

RK Narayan's India: A Perspective

Praful is a Professor, a dyed-in-the-wool academic who is shaped by the life-denying philosophy of Shankara's Advaita Vedanta. Parul, on the other hand, is a sensual, earthy woman who believes in the veracity of love and the reality of the many beautiful things that life offers. A chance meeting between the two leads not only to a romantic relationship spread over eleven purnimas, but becomes a dialogue between two philosophical systems, the Advaita of Shankara and the Madhurya of the Bhagvata Purana. As romantic moments between the two unfold, intellectuality interacts with sensuality, questioning the validity of each, and as Chaitra moves to Magh, a transformation takes place. As Harsha Dehejia weaves this romantic story, where meetings by the Parijataka and conversations underneath the Champa, are not only moments of shringara but introspections on the meaning of life, we hear and feel the sensuality of love as it merges seamlessly with the intellectuality of a philosophic discourse. In this heart-throbbing romantic relationship, there is the spiritual quest of ultimate reality along with the pleasures of the sound of the wind and the song of a bird. Metaphysical thoughts and tender feelings, evocative colours and resonant sounds, intoxicating aromas and patterned textures, myths and metaphors, intermingle in the hushed conversations of two people in love.

Love Story

It is believed that love is the most magical feeling in the world. Yet, only a few lucky ones get to experience it in their lives. If the beginning of Ravin and Khushi's journey is anything to go by, their story is bound to be anything but conventional. However, if they have been lucky enough to find true love in each other, will they have the strength to deal with the biggest challenge life throws their way? Ravin still can't believe that he is actually thinking about getting married to Khushi! In any case, he has already set the ball rolling by telling his parents about her. But what if they are rushing into things? After all, they still have their careers to focus on and MBAs to complete, not to mention his upcoming trip to the US. Are they doing the right thing? Read on to find out in this part of Ravinder Singh's I Too Had a Love Story.

I Too Had a Love Story

Love-only a four letter word, yet it's so powerful that it can conquer anything in this world! We've all experienced the first flush of love and remember the lingering fragrance of it. For ages Love has remained one of the most cherished experiences that everyone wishes to live through at least once. Humanity, time and again, has coined many definitions to describe this beautiful emotion, but this small word is a feeling that can't simply be defined. It has to be narrated . . . in the form of stories-love stories.

Love Stories That Touched My Heart is a collection of such stories from readers who have a tale to tell, shortlisted from over 2000 entries that were submitted in a competition conducted by Penguin India. Selected and edited by Ravinder Singh, this anthology-made up of the stories that touched Ravin's heart the most-will make you believe that someone, somewhere, is made for you.

Western Colonial Policy

Everyone who have been in a relationship, have experienced love tends to think as their love story to be the most ideal and the best one. Every time we read a love story; consciously or sub- consciously we link the parts of it to the real-life love story. I am no different from these people. I usually used to write small paragraphs or stories whenever I felt to express myself. Never a thought crossed my mind to write a full story nor really got a chance to do so. However, I had a lot of emotions to pen down and also the time to do it lately. Hence, decided to give a shot to complete a whole book. So here I am, with my first novel with an attempt to make everyone feel like it's their own story and experience the Deja-vu.

Love Stories that Touched My Heart

Sometimes, you do not write your story, it writes you. You don't choose your story, it chooses you. But would you believe it if someone told you, 'This is Not Your Story'? Would you have the courage to rewrite it? Shaurya, a CA student. This is his story of following his dreams. Miraya, an interior designer. This is her story of believing in love. Anubhav, an aspiring entrepreneur. This is his story of giving life another chance. After her record-breaking debut novel Everyone Has A Story, Savi Sharma tells a transforming tale of courage, hope and self-discovery.

An Old Tale from Far Land

August, 1968: Babo Patel arrives in London from Madras, with curly hair, jhill mill teeth and dreams of becoming a success. When he meets the beautiful, auburn-haired Siân Jones, he falls in love instantly. She, like him, is in search of something bigger than what the home she left behind can offer. But when Babo's parents learn of his intention to marry 'some girl from God knows where' he is given an ultimatum: he can only marry Siân if they agree to live in Madras for two years before returning to London. As the years pass by, the calamities, quirks and heartaches of first love, lost innocence, and old age unfold across cultures and generations of this mixed-up family in a topsy-turvy world.

Presents of Love

This is the love story of Yatindra and Sadhana - nearly 55 years of sharing cheers and tears, facing odds and overcoming them, together. It's a story of reaching great heights in their fields - he in journalism and she in painting and sketching. He also wrote books and poetry. She couldn't lag behind - she too wrote articles and poems. They did not stop there. He did thousands of radio and TV programs. She also was on radio for numerous programs. He traveled extensively. She also did quite a bit. They were one of the most popular couples in India's capital city of New Delhi, and later in Indore, mingling with Presidents and Prime Ministers, top diplomats and business people. They were invited by various foreign governments to visit. Yatindra wrote books, Sadhana contributed for some. They collaborated in some more. Sadhana raised their two lovely daughters, mainly by herself, as Yatindra got busy in reporting, writing books and traveling. She also wrote poems about him, and he did the same about her and others too. They were always on the same page; were two bodies and one soul. With all that, she was also an excellent cook, an expert in sewing, knitting, crochet work, embroidery, singing, hospitality, making life-long friends and helping others. Together they raised good children, brought good sons-in-law and spread love far and wide. In return they got love from far and wide. They both remained love-birds, till the last day for her. Those days, he would sit by her side, hold her hand, look into her eyes, and whispered sweet nothings in her ears. This is their Fairytale Love Story. There is a vast treasury of historic and bio info, events, sweet and sour memories, tough challenges and admirable achievements.
