The typical wait time for a liver transplant is 12-36 months.

There are currently over 16,000 Americans on the waiting list for a liver transplant.

Who will say yes?

One person can help save the lives of eight people through organ donation.

You are more likely to be in need of a transplant than to be an organ donor.

Clint's donor family, like many others, was grateful for the connection.

The generous gift of life can be given with a single act of compassion.
