Lord Youve Got To Be Kidding

#you must be kidding #unbelievable surprise #expression of disbelief #humorous incredulity #shocking revelation

This powerful exclamation, "Lord, you've got to be kidding," perfectly captures a moment of intense unbelievable surprise or profound disbelief. Whether faced with a truly shocking revelation, a ridiculously improbable situation, or simply a lighthearted jest taken too far, this phrase is a quintessential expression of disbelief. It conveys a mix of exasperation, amazement, and sometimes humorous incredulity, signaling that the speaker finds the current reality utterly impossible to accept and is perhaps even asking if they are truly kidding.

Ten years have passed since the Demon Lord Kranos declared war on mankind. As the situation grows desperate, the Ruxe Kingdom summons a hero from another world to stand against this threat. Assigned by the Church to join the hero's party, a battle-worn priest arrives to fulfill his obligations but is shocked to find that his companions are utterly inept! A mage who can only use fire magic, a swordswoman recently defected from her father's fighting school, and a hero obsessed with women?! With an average level totaling just 15, there's no way these novices are capable of taking down a demon lord! But a job's a job, so it's up to the man of God (who thankfully has power to spare) to support these buffoons from the shadows. With an extraordinary healer on their side, defeating their target will be a cinch! ...Hopefully.

Defeating the Demon Lord's a Cinch (If You've Got a Ringer)

Have you ever awakened in the middle of the night and had such a strong feeling of having to do something and not been able to go back to sleep until you did it? Have you had many experiences about which you called coincidences or intuition? Have you had a song come on the radio with words that touched your heart at a time when you really needed to hear them? Have you had a friend/relative call you on the phone just when you were about to call that person yourself? Have you had a book come into your hands just when you needed to read the message in it? If you answered yes to any or all of the preceding questions, then this book is the one for you to read. It is a true story about what happened to an average person like you, who decided to take a leap of faith and believe that it was God speaking to her whenever any of those things happened. It could be your story, because the author describes what she did to hear God's Voice and what transpired when she followed the directives which she was given. Read this book to see what can happen in just 12 short weeks when you take a leap of faith, be still and listen, and try to be just Love.

Maybe God Is Trying to Tell You Something

Share the Gospel? Does the thought make you want to hide in bed with the blankets over your head? If it does, you're not alone, but help is at hand. Here is what Chuck Antone Jr. says in this exciting book written with great humor and much understanding: "Are you ready to experience sharing Christ with the lost? Does one name keep popping into your mind? Has God been whispering in your ear? If so, be challenged, make that contact and see what God can do. Be encouraged by just being available. Just be the instrument, the tool. Let God do the work. He is much better at it than we are, for He has had a lot more experience in bringing someone to His Son, Jesus Christ. After all, He is God, the Mighty One, the Powerful One, the Creator, Our Savior, Our Father, the One and Only God. When we witness, we should look our best; we should have a glow of happiness, a glow of peace, and a glow of love. The way we act toward one another, the love we have for one another, the way we handle situations and even trials in our lives, and the way we overcome obstacles: that is what people will notice about us. In John 13:35, Jesus says, 'BY THIS ALL MEN WILL KNOW THAT YOU ARE MY DISCIPLES, IF YOU HAVE LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER.' Yes, our hair may not be perfect, and our teeth not straight. We may have a few wrinkles (or more), but they won't notice that. What they will notice is your joy and love in the Lord. And they will want it; and best of all, it's free!"

My malignant tumor miraculously disappeared without leaving a trace, hence there was no need for my surgeon to use his scalpel. How could I not appreciate a God who provided the last ingredient for the cancer cure cocktail and defended me for His Glory and for my good?

Stan Pollack has delivered great stories, authentic characters and thought provoking ideas, since entering the library scene. Now this versatile writer offers a fascinating exploration at the highest level, when he seeks to answer two universal questions on a humorous, if not, hilarious basis. Is there God? If so, does God have a sense of humor? The author does not have to go any further than the bible, the cardinal text for Judaism and Christianity, to seek out and satisfy in detail the answers to the questions pondered.

This is the third of three titles written to challenge you to build up your faith and when God asks you to do something ... do it! Don't question it, but believe that God does know what He's doing and because of His love for you, knows what is best for you, and that He has great plans for you as you stretch yourself to serve Him. Like Chuck's two other titles, there are questions in the back of each chapter. Please do them either alone, or with a friend or Bible study group. This will help you to know the WHAT that God may be asking you to do. The first book, You've Got To Be Kidding, Lord, You Want Me To Tell WHO About You? was written to challenge you to witness for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The second book, You Can't Be Serious, Lord, You Want Me To Love WHO? was written to challenge and help you to love as God loves.

The sessions were remarkable in the constancy of the high spirituality of the presentations. There were no valleys or plateaus. All of your presentations have been remarkable in their depth, spirituality and application to our daily lives." -Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Ewing, Corpus Christi, TX This devotional series is penetrating and soul-searching in its honesty and encouragement. If God Loves Me, Why Can't I Get My Locker Open?

"No matter how broken you are, you are still God's creation, and only He knows how to put you back together again. I believe that through the life I lived, as shared in Satan's Underground, I have begun to learn a little bit about God's way of dealing with emotional pain. No matter what the trouble, His answers remain the same. And so it is my prayer that, as I share some of these answers with you, you will find hope and healing for your hurting heart." from I Know You're Hurting In the fall of 1992, Pelican published Lauren Stratford's breakthrough work, I Know You're Hurting: Living Through Emotional Pain. This book speaks to people who have been victims of any abuse-physical, emotional, or spiritual.

Though Lauren Stratford draws on to her own experiences as a survivor of ritual abuse by a satanic cult, the important lessons-reclaiming one's spirituality and cultivating a sense of self-worth-are helpful for anyone who has felt the pain of abuse. I Know You're Hurting was also originally published by Harvest House but was only released for a short time due to the growing controversy associated with Satan's Underground, Lauren Stratford's previous book, which tackles the same issues. By publishing I Know You're Hurting, Pelican demonstrated that it believed in Stratford's story, which it continues to stand behind today. I Know You're Hurting is a significant contribution to the spiritual recovery market for its valid insight into a growing area of abuse that few are willing to talk about. Also, it also has a general focus, which has an important role in the mainstream self-help market.

Stay at Home Mom and Let God Be Your Provider is based on real life experiences of my life as well as my children. For the last year and half God has allowed me to take the time literally to stay at home and be with my children while He provided our every need so we could heal from our past hurts. He gave me the assignment of sharing our lessons and healing process. My childhood was stolen very early on through sexual abuse and then being raped multiple times as a result from never healing it caused a cycle of unhealthy and negative behavior throughout my life which was also transferred to my children. Having 4 children by different fathers that were not active in their lives was also painful and then I began abusing alcohol and drugs. Through faith, prayer, fasting, forgiveness and total submission to God we were able to take back what the enemy has stolen. We now have peace, love, joy and life more abundantly.

How God Answers Prayer (How to Pray)

Ultimately, my goal is to learn to bear with others, be present in the moment, press in to God, and bluntly put shut up! Except of course when the next thing in my life causes me to scream, You've got to be kidding! Cookie Leonardelli has always wanted to write a book; a book that would reach people right where they were at get into their hearts, speak to their souls and ultimately bring them healing from the pain they have experienced in their lives. You've Got to be Kidding! is that book. Cookie begins with the story of her childhood and weaves stories from her adult life throughout the book. We learn about her fears, her hopes and dreams and the pains she has suffered. Ultimately we get to learn about her victory through her strong faith in Jesus Christ. Cookie's goal is that through her story you will learn that even though some circumstances may seem impossible to survive (like the death of a child) you will always be brought back to a place of faith, healing and victory. She hopes you will laugh, cry, but mostly that you will be able to find a place of peace in your life regardless of the challenges you have faced. So with that in mind, you are encouraged to curl up on the couch with a blanket, bag of Cheetos (or whatever snack you prefer) and crack open this book at the end, the expectation is that you will say to yourself Youve got to be kidding!

Next stop on the party's quest to defeat the Demon Lord: Yutith's Tomb, home to undead monsters. It's a great place to level up a bunch of novices, but there's just one problem -- the hero is terrified of the undead! On the bright side, the party may have finally found a priest to join their quest. She's an apprentice and can't cast any spells, but that's still better than nothing, right? In the meantime, the party's previous priest, Ares, trails behind them, providing support in secret -- and pulling a few strings -- until they can defeat the Demon Lord once and for all.

You Must Be Joking, Lord, You Want Me to Do WHAT?

Beleaguered priest Ares Crown has encountered all sorts of trials and tribulations in supporting the hero's party thus far, and now the Holy Warrior Naotsugu Toudou can no longer wear the holy armor Fried. But there's good news: The top prize at the local casino is the legendary summetal armor, and that should make a fine substitute. Alas, Ares's subordinate, Stey, is banned from this casino, and the owner is notoriously corrupt. Has the party's (already dismal) luck run out? Or will one harried man of the cloth have to take matters into his own hands?!

You've Got to Be Kidding!

WE ALL WANT TO EXPERIENCE successful, even dramatic, spiritual growth. Yet we often feel as though we're taking "two steps forward, three steps back." As we learn--and relearn--the same spiritual lessons time and again, we become discouraged, thinking that we are not changing or growing. But, as author Carole Mayhall gently reminds us, such experiences are a normal, even vital, part of the healthy Christian life. With heart-warming vulnerability, Mayhall explains and illustrates that spiritual growth is a lifelong endeavor--but through it all, your heavenly Father is whispering, "I will uphold you. I will sustain you. I will carry you." Painting a vivid picture of a patient God who loves and shapes you, Here I Am Again, Lord offers solid reassurance and motivation to significantly encourage you in your walk with Christ.
