Rule by Economists The worst form of this degradation is to be found in the way that the actual ruling class in modernity is that of the economist, such that even presidents and prime ministers are understood to be in the service of the mandates of the economist rather than the other way around. It really is a historical anomaly in modernity for the mindset of bankers to take over the entire economy and reformat it into a system in which the financial industry takes over the whole and forces every other sphere of productivity to be subordinate to its.
