White Mandingo

A 60's "Woodstock" Vermonter realizes there has to be more to life than LSD and rock n'roll. He leaves his profoundly dysfunctional family, his bohemian friends, and joins an Order. Entering Seminary, he studies meditates and after two years, he works with the poor in Liberia, West Africa. Instead of finding God, he finds two African goddesses.

White Mandingo

The conclusion of the African odyssey about the lost Vermonter, who struggled to find God, among African Goddesses.

The Modern Divine Comedy Book 3: Limboland 1 Entrance

This book continues exploring the experiences, trials and tribulations of both the Journalist Romano known here as the First Man Adam and his Celestial Guide Zarathustra while they travel to the remaining Limboland Arenas and Inferno witnessing the horror of the after-world with the contemptuous Devil and his swaggering Three Crown Princes in their secret Offices in the lowest Infernal Ring. Here the disenchanted souls still struggle to survive with the interference of the narcissistic Devil and without the influence of God's help. The remaining Limboland Arenas include the Black Afrikan; the Primitives Mini-Limboland; the Russian Marxists; the Conspiracy Theorists; the Persians; the Ottoman Turks; the Filipino Mini-Limboland and the Limbo-Limbo Lands through the Gates of Hades. The draconian Devil's Inferno sites include Ring One as the De-Militarized Zone; the Jungleground Inner Sanctum; Ring Two as Carnality; Ring Three as Gluttony; Ring Four as Greed & Avarice; a Culinary Intermezzo Between Greed & Anger; Ring Five of the Anger & Wrathful & Sullen; Ring Six of Heresy; Ring Seven of Violence; Ring Eight of the Evil Pouches; Ring Nine of the Traitors & Fraud; and Ring Ten of Lucifer's Demonic Cabaret. Not to be captured or outdone by the Devil the duo finally arrange Getting Out of Hell while the last scenes include The Devil's Last Hurrah and Lilith Gets the Last Laugh; Infernus Not.

Religion, Race, and COVID-19

"This book analyzes how the particular dynamics and effects emerging from the COVID-19 crisis both impact and are perceived by its most vulnerable yet visionary populations, based on their pragmatic and prescient analysis of the American experiment of freedom with regards to race and religion. Without a doubt, this book addresses the various ways the COVID-19 crisis marks not merely a moment in time, but also a world-historical event that threatens to leave its imprint on lives and cultures for decades to come"--

Volume 1 of 5 begins in 1689 Port Royal, Jamaica, where Atia Crisp is imprisoned, awaiting trial, while refugees from Strangeways's plantation seek their new home. Guided by Capitaine la Roche, they face pursuit by the pirate hunter Big Dick and the perilous terrain of Bocas del Toro. Their future home of Sérénité hangs in the balance, complicated by the outbreak of war with France. Series Description: Ye be warned - this series contains sexual situations, drug usage, foul language, crude humor, and beaky parrots. In 1689, Atia Crisp finds herself imprisoned in the wickedest city on earth, Port Royal, Jamaica, while the refugees from Strangeways's plantation in the Blue Mountains are on the run and seeking a new home, deep in the Caribbean. Captain Jean-Paul la Roche must get them to safety and find a way to liberate the woman he loves while waging a war against the English with the pirate Laurens de Graaf. While besieged people suffer and starve, a group of women form a secret and illegal society deep from within the bowels of the city called: WENCH. A network that deals with smugglers, merchants, cutthroats and thieves. Dragged into the struggle for supremacy of the Caribbean, the women are divided and find themselves engulfed in bloodshed. The pirates of Port Royal and former enemies may be their only hope of escape. Hell hath no fury like a cross wench!

Mandingo

In Knuti Kenya's homage to Blaxploitation films of the 1970's we find Black Kung-Fu Master Mandingo inherited property in all white Forsythe County, Georgia. He decides to move there anyway to start his Kung-Fu school in his deceased father's vacant bakery building. After some of his young black students tangle with the local white bullies, the local Klu Klux Klan gets involved and things begin to heat up, but Master Mandingo vows to stick his Kung-Fu foot in their asses!

The Popular Encyclopedia; pt. 1: Sketch of the progress of physical science [part 1], A-Bankrupt

El libro aborda la idea de la colonización de Marte como una posible solución a los problemas de superpoblación, agotamiento de los recursos naturales y calentamiento global que enfrenta la Tierra. La humanidad ha llegado a un punto crítico de su existencia en el que los recursos y el espacio son cada vez más escasos. La colonización de Marte ofrece una nueva frontera para el crecimiento y la expansión humanos. Aunque la tecnología para lograr esto todavía está en desarrollo, los expertos predicen que el día en que los seres humanos puedan vivir y prosperar en Marte puede no estar muy lejos. La colonización de Marte no debe verse como una solución milagrosa a los problemas de nuestro planeta. Debe verse como una pieza de un rompecabezas mayor, junto con los esfuerzos para abordar las causas profundas de los problemas que enfrentamos en la Tierra. Es importante abordar la colonización de Marte con una mentalidad de administración responsable, reconociendo las obligaciones éticas que conlleva aventurarse en un territorio desconocido. Solo así podremos garantizar que la colonización de Marte no repita los errores del colonialismo y la explotación del pasado. Corresponde a la propia humanidad forjar su futuro y su destino. Si somos capaces de dar los pasos necesarios para colonizar Marte con éxito, podremos asegurar nuestra existencia y garantizar nuestra supervivencia a las generaciones venideras.

No Quarter: Wenchies - Volume 1

This book uses primary sources to capture the ways Africans experienced and were influenced by the slave trade.

Mandingo

Featuring pieces written from 1994 to the present, this collection explores the minds of black youth in South Africa during apartheid. Collectively, they provide a provocative commentary of the realities of everyday life, tenderly yet intensely giving a voice to the rising youth who would become prominent players in the post-apartheid nation.

MARTE, EL ÚLTIMO REFUGIO DE LA HUMANIDAD

Some of the most controversial and consequential debates about the legacy of the ancients are raging not in universities but online, where alt-right men's groups deploy ancient sources to justify misogyny and a return of antifeminist masculinity. Donna Zuckerberg dives deep to take a look at this unexpected reanimation of the Classical tradition.

Africa and Indonesia : the Evidence of the Xylophone and Other Musical and Cultural Factors

Known as the "bible" of midwifery, this new edition of Varney's Midwifery has been extensively revised and updated to reflect the full scope of current midwifery practice in a balance of art and science, a blend of spirituality and evidence-based care, and a commitment to being with women.

Africa and Indonesia the Evidence of the Xylophone and Other Musical and Cultural Factores

Büttikofer's Travel Sketches from Liberia details the development of the Liberian nation and the intricate, often volatile, relationships between the country's indigenous peoples and its black colonists from America. In remarkable detail, it provides vivid images of the country's past.

Mandingo

Based on the controversial but popular e-zine, this collection of opinion pieces and essays analyzes current topics facing postapartheid South Africa; including black economic empowerment, affirmative action, race, poverty, and affluence, while also touching on such lighter topics as sports, movies, love, and friendship. Black pride, strength, unity, and prosperity are central themes in these articles, creating a unique picture of the current South African black consciousness movement.

African Voices on Slavery and the Slave Trade: Volume 1, The Sources

O'Mandingo!

A collection of essays by distinguished writers, critics and artists which addresses the discipline of African dance both on the continent and in the wider Diaspora. Includes a contribution from the distinguished Jamaican choreographer Sir Rex Nettleford.

Report of the Commissioner of Education

The U.S. invasion of Haiti in July 1915 marked the start of a military occupation that lasted for nineteen years--and fed an American fascination with Haiti that flourished even longer. Exploring the cultural dimensions of U.S. contact with Haiti during the occupation and its aftermath, Mary Renda shows that what Americans thought and wrote about Haiti during those years contributed in crucial and unexpected ways to an emerging culture of U.S. imperialism. At the heart of this emerging culture, Renda argues, was American paternalism, which saw Haitians as wards of the United States. She explores the ways in which diverse Americans--including activists, intellectuals, artists, missionaries, marines, and politicians--responded to paternalist constructs, shaping new versions of American culture along the way. Her analysis draws on a rich record of U.S. discourses on Haiti, including the writings of policymakers; the diaries, letters, songs, and memoirs of marines stationed in Haiti; and literary works by such writers as Eugene O'Neill, James Weldon Johnson, Langston Hughes, and Zora Neale Hurston. Pathbreaking and provocative, Taking Haiti illuminates the complex interplay between culture and acts of violence in the making of the American empire.

Report of the Commissioner of Education Made to the Secretary of the Interior for the Year ... with Accompanying Papers

An in-depth look at the rising American generation entering the Black professional class Despite their diversity, Black Americans have long been studied as a uniformly disadvantaged group. Drawing from a representative sample of over a thousand Black students and in-depth interviews and focus groups with over one hundred more, Young, Gifted and Diverse highlights diversity among the new educated Black elite—those graduating from America's selective colleges and universities in the early twenty-first century. Differences in childhood experiences shape this generation, including their racial and other social identities and attitudes, and beliefs about and interactions with one another. While those in the new Black elite come from myriad backgrounds and have varied views on American racism, as they progress through college and toward the Black professional class they develop a shared worldview and group consciousness. They graduate with optimism about their own futures, but remain guarded about racial equality more broadly. This internal diversity alongside political consensus among the elite complicates assumptions about both a monolithic Black experience and the future of Black political solidarity.
