

Falsum In Persona

#falsum in persona #mistake of identity #contract law error #voidable contract #legal identity mistake

Falsum in Persona is a Latin legal principle referring to a fundamental mistake concerning the identity of one of the parties to a contract. This error of identity can be so significant that it negates genuine consent, potentially rendering the contract void or voidable. It highlights scenarios where a party mistakenly believes they are dealing with a different person, undermining the very basis of the agreement.
