We Make Our Way into the Darkness I Flash Around but My Phone Light Isn't Very Strong and Only Illuminates a Little Bit Ahead of Us I Listen and There's a Rustling in the Back My Sister Squeaks the Sound Frightening Her and Tugs on My Arm that She Wants To Leave but I Pulled Back and with a Look Tell Her that I Want To Keep Going the Ground Was Ordinary and after a Few Steps Do We Crunch with Our Feet and Look down There Was a Small Animal Bone on the Ground

Sometimes Not Arriving Home until the Sun Was Up One Particular Night We Decided To Ride a Few Miles Away from Our Usual Back Roads To Take One of Our Favorite Hidden Routes It Began with a Narrower Paved Path That Was the Only Piece of Land Separating Two Sides of a Long Lake It Would Often Sink under due to Rain and We Wanted To Seize the Opportunity To Use It before It Rained and Went Underwater Again It Was Roughly 2 Miles Long and Extremely Relaxing To Ride Through due to the Scenery after Making It to the End of the Lake We Decided To Continue Moving and Turn into a Very Closed Path That Leads Directly into a Densely Wooded Wilderness Preservation

We Finally Summoned the Nerve To Get Up and Try To Run Somewhere Far Enough from these People To Safely Make a Call We Ran as Hard and Fast as We Could through the Woods since Their Headlights Gave Away Their Location on these Paths We Could Hide Again Whenever We Felt that They Were Getting Too Close Our Available Hiding Spots Were Getting Progressively Worse as the Woods Became Less 10 and the Fear I Felt Waiting for One of Them To Drive past Us while Basically Only Being Covered in Leaves and Plants May Still Be Unmatched to this Day Finally We Emerged from the Woods onto the Intersection of Two Main Roads Far from Where We Had Started We Ducked Down into the Ditch To Call for Help

It Was around His Knee Level and I Saw How Much Effort It Took for Him Not To Fall and Carry On Moving There Was no Way To Avoid this Person because It Was a Tiny Path through the Snow He Was Staring at Me Smiling I'M Unsure if It Was in a Predatory Way but Something Was Strange in the Smile I Thought Well if Anything Happens I Can Push Him and Run and Carry On Moving When I Was

Right Next to Him this Happened Everything Took Place in About Three Seconds I Was Watching His every Move with My Side Vision and in One Moment He Vanished There Was Nowhere To Hide the Trees Give You At Least a Hundred Meters Worth of Visibility
