A Singapore Love Story by Kay Hwa Low

The one who stretches the rubber band is reality. No matter how much two lovers love each other, reality will stretch that love. Whether it holds or breaks doesn't just depend on how strong the love is. It depends on how aggressive reality is stretching as well. If the rubber band has broken, there is no way to fix it.

I'd probably be more normal if the following hadn't happened to me in childhood...

A knowledge of the partner's past shifts our ideas of their present behaviour. They're not just being difficult they're struggling with the complex legacy of a past they still don't know how to grapple with.

What I would like to be forgiven for...

Where I'd love you to realise you hurt me is...

What would help me to change is if you...
