The options available were usually too difficult and didn't even include the words to sing along. Additionally, the format and stylings seemed too stale for a book that was celebrating the most wonderful time of the year! So, I hope you will enjoy this book as I've brought my musical childhood wishes to life! More About This Book: All songs have been set up with the beginner in mind. It's well suited for the violinist who has studied for 6 months to 2 years. Of course, if you are more advanced than that you can still enjoy these merry tunes!
