Proceedings of the Engineers' Society of Western Pennsylvania

This book is a collection of papers and discussions presented at the Engineers Society of Western Pennsylvania's meetings. It covers a wide range of topics related to engineering such as bridge design, steel production, and urban planning. The contributors are experts in their fields, and their insights provide valuable information for engineers and aspiring engineers alike. This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work is in the "public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.
