Much work has been done—and ...

People have an interest in solving their problems--not fatalistic but optimistic in believing problems can be solved by achievable change.

To address economic and way-of-life duress, people have an interest in

In response to these interests, populism presents solutions. It aims at addressing economic and way-of- life duress by providing "we" in struggle against "them"

In order to "feel right" and be thought effective, populist solutions must be understandable.
