A Goat in a Boat has returned! On a beautiful autumn day, she sailed out of the mist to greet the people on the bank of the river. Together they sing and dance merrily around until a ranger tries to put a stop to it. And then the fun begins. Yes, just as in the first book, she gives the police a merry chase as the grown ups and children alike cheer her on. Enjoy the rhyming verse and the beautiful illustrations as you follow the antics of this wonderful character.

A Goat in a Boat

The Goat on the Boat is feeling very shy. Most of the time it's a quick hi and bye-bye. Being on the boat brings a big smile. But it does get lonely every once in a while. I hope to meet a friend sometime soon, you see. Even if it's an eagle, an elephant, or a monkey. The Goat on the Boat is a social story that portrays a young goat that struggles with shyness, anxiety and new experiences. Sail away with The Goat on a Boat and see what happens next. Move over Dr. Seuss, Mary Lee Kendal is in town. During Mary's years as a teacher, she found the best way to teach was to be "entertaining without being entertainment." She saw how children and teens are extremely creative if you just give them a chance. Kids learn in many different ways. Some learn through reading, playing, singing, dancing, rhyming, or even drawing. They learn visually, and by writing poetry. They love to creatively express themselves and her classroom was one place they could do that. So how did she come up with fun Dr. Seuss type rhyming books? As a kid, she loved to rhyme. She was always encouraged to write, read, rhyme, play, act, sing, dance, and be as creative as possible by her parents. She feels her books bring in many of her favorite ways to learn. Her social stories are meant to be read aloud between adult and child bringing the bond between each other even closer. All of Mary's social stories are meant to educate in an entertaining way. "If I can help one child feel a little bit better about whom they are; build self-confidence, increase self-esteem, overcome shyness, or anxiety, and help them realize they are not alone, then I have done what I have set out to do." Stay Tough Kids! Mary Lee Kendal MaryLeeKendal.com

WINNER OF THE JAMES BEARD FOUNDATION COOKBOOK AWARD FOR BEST SINGLE SUBJECT BOOK 2019 WINNER OF THE GUILD OF FOOD WRITERS' BEST SPECIALIST/SINGLE SUB-

JECT BOOK AWARD 2019 'James knows an awful lot about goats.' – Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall We should all be eating more goat! It's sustainable, ethical, highly nutritious and low in calories. Why, then, does it remain so underused and misunderstood? This book tells the story of how food and farming culture developed in the west without the help of this staple of global agriculture, and showcases the best recipes from around the world using this fabulous beast. Utterly delicious cooked fast and lean, or slow-cooked in curries, stews, braises and roasts, from kebabs to stir-fries to sausages, goat is the one meat we should all be eating more of. With 100 dishes created by Cabrito's founder James Whetlor, plus a foreword by Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall, and guest recipes from world-renowned chefs including Yotam Ottolenghi, Gill Meller, Neil Rankin and Jeremy Lee, Goat is a ground-breaking, bold cookbook. Essential reading for anyone with even a passing interest in food and the way we eat today, and set to be the definitive guide on the subject for years to come, Goat is a genre-defining book. 50 per cent of the royalties from the book will be donated to Farm Africa.

The Goat on a Boat

A Boat to Lesbos, by Syrian poet Nouri al-Jarrah, was written as Syrian refugees endured frightening journeys across the Mediterranean before arriving on the small island. Set out like a Greek tragedy, it is dramatic witness to the horrors and ravages they suffered, seen through the eye of history, the poetry of Sappho and the travels of Odysseus.

The Cat in the Coat

The three billy goats outsmart the hungry troll who lives under the bridge.

The Goat That Gloats

With its winning mix of gripping narrative and easy-to-implement performance-raising tips, this book has become a best-selling classic. It's garnered 5-star reviews and wide-ranging endorsements – from Sebastian Coe and Dame Kelly Holmes to Lord Digby Jones

Captain Duck

Three special friends have a fun time sharing many great adventures in this lively tale for beginning readers. Original.

The Goat and the Stoat and the Boat

Ayoka is put in charge of the family goat, who promptly vanishes, and as Ayoka searches the marketplace she learns from the vendors of many things that have recently disappeared--including bread, sunglasses, and a wig.

Goat

Poetry. "Emily Pettit has included a number of 'how to' poems in her nimble and dazzling first collection, such as: 'How to Make No Noise, ' and the especially useful 'How to Avoid Confronting Most Large Animals.' Her kindness is always ahead of us, anticipating the problems we will or won't run into, and we always end up in a different, precise place than the one we started out from, as she reassuringly tells us: 'You know / you know you know. It's all uncertainty / and your neck. You walk slowly / in a calm voice.' GOAT IN THE SNOW is multicolored, ever-changing, a delight to try to clasp." John Ashbery "GOAT IN THE SNOW is like a taste test between an etch-a-sketch and a spotlight, a race between a wind-up beetle and an idea. The certainty of Pettit's 'I know, ' and 'I think' quickly turns into a quicksand of questions. Perceptive, jumpy and perfectly odd, this book encourages you to 'try to maneuver like a spacecraft / passing sufficiently close to a planet / in order to make some relatively detailed observations / Without landing.'" Matthea Harvey "The poems in GOAT IN THE SNOW often ask odd, penetrating questions. 'What do you call a field of black telephones ringing?' 'Where did you find such a stunning embankment?' 'Is this what loving someone is like?' 'Do you remember the basement?' 'In what direction do you look when someone says something true?' These poems are full of mortal awareness, and are sophisticated without being ornate or 'poetic.' When the poet says, 'Once in modest and murky water, I had a very disturbing conversation with a boat,'" I don't feel as if she is writing in metaphor. I feel like something real has happened." Matthew Zapruder"
