Collins Contemporary German Dictionary

This book analyses how the early Greek whole-Bible manuscripts (pandects) change and preserve the text. Dormandy refutes the method based on singular readings and so investigates all the ways in which each pandect differs from the initial text, both changes introduced by its own scribe and by the scribes of earlier manuscripts. He surveys sample chapters in John, Romans, Revelation, Sirach and Judges (including discussing the "new finds" of Sinaiticus). Dormandy's observations of Codex Ephraemi challenge accepted transcriptions. Dormandy argues that Sinaiticus and Vaticanus may plausibly have been made in response to commissions by Constantine and Constans. Dormandy concludes that generally, across all the Biblical books considered, the pandects preserve the initial text well. Transcriptional and linguistic variations are more common than harmonisations or changes of content. The more precise profiles of each manuscript vary between Biblical books. The pandects thus create bibliographic unity from textual diversity. This shows their significance in the history of the Christian Bible: they reflect in bibliographic form the hermeneutical move to consider all the books of the Christian Bible as one corpus.

2000 Most Common German Words in Context

Selection of 24 essays by the dictionary researcher Reinhard Hartmann on 'Interlingual Lexicography', a genre much neglected in the literature, including interdisciplinary approaches to translation equivalence, its analysis in contrastive text linguistics and its treatment in the bilingual dictionary, with particular attention to the user perspective, in English and German.

Building a Book of Books

Groups of German and English words in a particular subject area are illustrated on the same or opposite page.

Collins German Dictionary

In contrast to narrative, description is a much less researched phenomenon, and where it so far has found attention at all, scholars have almost always discussed it with fiction in mind. The all but exclusive concentration on literature has hitherto obscured the fact that description transcends literature and indeed the verbal media in general and is not only a transgeneric but also a transmedial phenomenon that can be found in many other media and arts. This book is a pioneering interdisciplinary study of description since it for the first time undertakes to close this research lacuna by highlighting description and its relevance with reference to a wide spectrum of arts and media. The volume opens with a detailed introductory essay, which aims at clarifying the descriptive as a basic semiotic form of organizing signs from a theoretical perspective but also provides a first overview of the uses of description as well as its problematics in fiction, painting and instrumental music. In the main part of the book, nine contributions by scholars from various disciplines explore description in individual media and different cultural epochs. The first section of the book is dedicated to literature and related (partly) verbal media and includes a typological and historical survey of description in fiction as well as discussions of its occurrence in poetry, nature writing, radioliterature and film. The second part deals with the (purely) visual media and ranges from a presentation of the descriptive techniques used in Dürer's graphic reproductions to general reflections on 'the descriptive' in the visual arts as well as in photography. A third section on description in music provides a perspective on yet another medium. The volume, which is the second one in the series 'Studies in Intermediality', is of relevance to students and scholars from various fields: intermedial studies, literary and film studies, history of art, and musicology.

Come with me!

Can you turn the volume up?

What did you say?

Do you know what I mean?

Don't worry!

I don't agree

Did you get it?

Where are you from?

Do as I say

Have a good trip

A lovely day, isn't it?

What do you need?

Please come as soon as possible

Come on!

I hope so!

Do you understand me?

What's your phone number?

Call me any day

I admire you

Can I help you?

What do you want to do?

I decline that

Enjoy yourself!

You are wasting my time

Do you need anything?

Where are you going?

I hope you understand
Don't move!
I am tired!
I am bored!
Can you please repeat that?
How can I go to the city?
Absolutely not!
God bless you!
I'm good at my work
Leave it to me!
Are you coming with me?
Could you help me?
Don't be so childish!
I am busy at the moment
Can I ask you something?
When is the train leaving?
Cheer up!
I hate you!
Are you sure?
I'm sorry, I can't assist you
Forget it!
I'm sorry to interrupt you
How much is it?
Where do you live?
Forgive me!
They like each other
How do you feel?
Where did you get it?
Be careful!
I can't wait any longer
Anything else?
Be quiet!
I don't have time
Are you kidding?
What's your email address?
I don't want it
You're driving too fast!
Talk to you tomorrow
What are your hobbies?
It really takes time
Not yet
Slow down your car
Nice to meet you!
What are you talking about?
I'm on a diet
Follow me!
I feel much better
Where are you?
Just shut up for a minute!
Let's do it!
What are you doing?
I'm at office
It's none of your business
Is everything OK?
I cannot agree with your opinions
It's up to you
Do me a favor!
Don't be ridiculous!
I knew it!

Are you coming?
What is going on?
I have no idea
It doesn't matter!
How was your weekend?
I have to leave early today
What do you think?
Be calm!
I apologize for being late
How are things going?
What do you want?
I can't believe it
I got it!
