But it's really not complicated, says Harvard Business School's Felix Oberholzer-Gee, ...

To many people, strategy is a mystery.

Strategy does not start with a focus on profit.

It's about creating value.

There's a simple tool to help visualize the value you create: the value stick.

What is willingness-to-pay?

What is willingness-to-sell?

Remind me: Where does profit come in again?

How do I raise willingness-to-pay?

And how do I lower willingness-to-sell?

Real world example: Best Buy's dramatic turnaround

Game theory spent much of its early days analyzing zero sum games and trying to figure out what's the best strategy.

In such a situation often times the best strategy is very counterintuitive, because it involves flipping a coin or rolling a dice or doing something random.

The nice thing about these random strategies is that they ensure that your opponent can never outthink you.
