Eat food that's good for you. Good food helps your bones to grow. It makes you strong and it stops you getting sick.

Everyone needs food to live. It gives you energy to work and play. It also gives you nutrients to grow well and stay healthy. Do you eat a balanced diet with lots of different nutrients ?

Your body needs proteins to build muscles. Proteins are also important for healthy hair and fingernails. You can get lots of proteins from meat, fish and eggs. Dairy products, like milk, cheese and yogurt, also contain proteins. Many people don't eat animal products, but they can get proteins from plant products. Pulses, like beans and lentils, are rich in proteins. Many grains, nuts and seeds have proteins, too. Which of these foods do you eat?

of meat and fish have a lot of fats. Dairy products, like butter and cheese, have fats, too. You can also get fats from plant products like nuts, seeds and vegetable oils. Be careful! Too many fats can make you fat.

Your body also needs minerals. You need calcium for strong bones and healthy teeth. Dairy products, like milk and yogurt, are good sources of calcium. You also need iron for healthy blood. You can get iron from red meat and eggs, or from vegetables like broccoli and spinach. Salt is also an important mineral, but be careful! Too much salty food is bad for you.

Most waste materials decompose. They break down into very small pieces. Food waste decomposes fast, but some waste materials decompose slowly. Paper materials take from two to five months to decompose. Some metal materials take from eighty to one hundred years, and plastic materials take maybe up to one thousand years. Some materials, like glass, never decompose.

The sun is a star. It's very, very hot! The sun has lots of heat and light. Heat and light from the sun come to Earth. The heat and light make Earth warm so we can live here. Light from the sun comes to Earth in eight minutes.

Some places are warm and sunny all year, and they have no seasons. Some places have seasons. In summer, there's more light from the sun, so it's warm. In winter, there's less light from the sun, so it's cold. Is it warm and sunny where you live?

This map isn't a completely accurate representation of Cambridge in the 16th century as it is an artistic rendition of an 16th century artistic rendition of Cambridge.

Milton Keynes didn't exist at this point. Well at least not as it is now. The city was part of a new development project in the 1960s. Before that the area was mostly farmland with very small population. It was inhabited ever since the bronze age it just never was an established city or even a town until the 1960s. I put it in because I simply made a mistake.

This could have been more than three or even less, it's hard to prove where one was born in the 12th century. Not many birth certificates were printed out at that time.

Technically he was only a “master of the scholars” since the chancellery didn't exist yet but in practice he basically oversaw all the day to day administrations of the University just like a chancellor would. Another reason for staying may have been that Cambridge had a presence of ecclesiastical courts for the bishopric of Ely meaning students and specially law students would have had a great opportunity to work in the town as well as learn.

Joined by the Dominicans in 1238.

However there were new Universities in Scotland due to the fact that the oath by Cambridge and Oxford pertained only to England.

Hostels and halls are basically the same thing and the words are used interchangeable for the most part. However the main difference is that the word hostel was mainly used in Cambridge as the word Hall was mainly used in Oxford.

Hostels like St Bernard's or Physwick.

Starting in around the 15th century.

M. Laser is an idiot who can't do History.

Gonville Hall unlike where today's Gonville & Caius College stands was located at what is today the garden of Corpus Christi College.

6 of which survived to this day and King's Hall and Michaelhouse got absorbed in to today's Trinity College.

Allegedly one of the leaders of the rioters was the mayor of Cambridge.

Back then Corpus Christi College was located a bit more up street than it is today.
