The Empire State, Building is a 102-story Art Deco ...

... derived from "Empire State", the nickname of New York, ...

As of 2017 the building is the 5th-tallest completed skyscraper in the United States and the 28th-tallest in the world.

The Empire State Building stood as the world's tallest building for nearly 40 years until the completion of the World Trade Center's North Tower in Lower Manhattan in late 1970.

Following the September 11 attacks in 2001, it was again the tallest building in New York until the new One World Trade Center was completed in April 2012

The combined hotel had 1,300 bedrooms making it the largest hotel in the world at the time.

After Boldt died, in early 1918, the hotel lease was purchased by Coleman du Pont.

The Astor family decided to build a replacement hotel further uptown, and sold the hotel to Bethlehem Engineering Corporation in 1928 for $14-16 million.

Two twelve-hour shifts, consisting of 300 men each, worked continuously to dig the 55-foot (17 m) foundation.

The first steel framework was installed on April 1, 1930.

By June 20, the skyscraper's supporting steel structure had risen to the 26th floor, and by July 27 half of the steel structure had been completed

According to official accounts, five workers died during the construction although the New York Daily News gave reports of 14 deaths.
