Jackaroo; n. a male station hand. That is according to the "Australian Slang Dictionary" whereas the Macquarie Dictionary gives a more realistic version. "A jack of all trades". Certainly a jackaroo is far more than 'a male station hand', which will be evident as the reader moves through this recount of the writer's five years of 'Station Management Apprenticeship', possibly a more precise definition of the word. ('Station' being a large sheep and/or cattle property/ranch). The origin of the word 'jackaroo' has been debated as long as the word has been in existence, but the most popular belief is that early English migrants, who worked on stations in the Australian Outback, were given the name of "Jack Rawl"
