 begin with a slipknot skip the first three chains from the hook adding three more double crochets start to turn this into a rectangle start your block pattern as normal skip the first three stitches from the hook creating rectangular shape to our blanket slip stitch across the three double crochets start your next block complete the row as a normal row by slip stitching slip stitch into the space between the chain-3 continuing the pattern as normal on the other side decrease on each side slip stitch across the last three double crochets connect it to the edge by slip stitching decreasing at both ends of every row slip stitch back across those last three double crochets tidy up the little edges with a simple little border create a little miniature scallop in the middle of every single block slip stitch into the top of the chain work three half double crochets into the top middle of that block working a three half double crochet scallop into the middle work a slip stitch into the very top bit of the corner
