MAINS PAPER 1: ROLE OF WOMEN & WOMEN ORGANIZATION

Indian economic success requires scientific skills that can foster a knowledge economy, the emergence of which depends on how gender- balanced the workforce is.

The requirement of the skilled workforce: A rapidly growing India requires a highly skilled technical workforce that is crucial for developing a knowledge economy.

They lack the work experience that would enable them to rise up the ranks and provide access to the wide range of developmental models that could build the credibility they need to advance.

Mentors often help build confidence as well as professional identity in protégés and offer access to developmental opportunities, allowing individuals to demonstrate their ability and gain trust.

The need for the employee-friendly policies: In recent years, we have witnessed an increase in the number of women with children who participate in the country's paid workforce.

Need for the realisation of the full potential of women
