Adult Sexual Attraction to Children (ASA), Paedophilia, Child Sexual Abuse, Contemporary Society, Sexual Offending

This study delves into the complex issue of adult sexual attraction to children (ASA) and its manifestation in contemporary society. It seeks to understand the underlying factors contributing to paedophilia, analyze the characteristics and behaviors of individuals with ASA, and explore effective strategies for prevention, intervention, and management within the context of modern social structures and evolving ethical considerations, ultimately aiming to protect vulnerable children from sexual abuse.
