

My Name Was Never Frankenstein

#Frankenstein #Victor Frankenstein #Frankenstein's monster #Mary Shelley #literary misconceptions

This iconic phrase, "My Name Was Never Frankenstein," directly addresses a prevalent literary misconception. It reminds readers that Frankenstein is actually the name of the scientist, Victor Frankenstein, who created the creature, not the Frankenstein's monster itself. This point is central to understanding Mary Shelley's original novel and correcting common literary myths surrounding the classic tale.
