Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

... the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day, ...

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

The Arrow That Flies by Day

The Arrow That Flies by Day deals with a wounded marine's efforts to conquer his physical wounds and to play in the NFL and to overcome his spiritual and emotional wounds to win at the ultimate game of life. The main character joins the service to avoid reform school and comes out physically and emotionally wounded. His parents are dead, he has no family, and he only has one friend—an old nun who was his high school principal and who would help him find his way. After being wounded, a wound that made him impotent, he is only fit to be a kicker like he was in high school. Even that did not come easily since he had broken his leg when he was in high school. But his father and the old nun trained him never to give up. Our marine shows up at training camp one day with all his belongings. He never went to college or played on any college football team but the aggressiveness he learned in the service and the commitment he learned from his father and his friend, the nun, helps motivate him to succeed but also causes conflicts with certain teammates. The story progresses through the professional and personal struggles for this man who does not know the meaning of surrender. He is at first cut from the team because of the lack of experience but an injury to the team's kicker provides an opportunity for him to return and play a crucial role in the team's success. Along the way he falls in love with a girl he knew in high school whom he meets by chance at her father's restaurant, and he struggles to figure out how his wounds will affect their relationship. But the romance and his career are cut short when our marine has to make a choice that causes him to lose everything he has worked for but to win an even bigger game—the game of life.

Harpers Ferry, Virginia, 1859. As the school year comes to a close, eleven-year-old Iris Clay is full of hope and wonder. She seeks to learn everything there is to know about the world so that she can become a great teacher. She wishes for a worthy companion for her widowed father. She tries to make sense of the actions of the local bully. But like everyone in town, she cannot imagine the explosive event that is to come that autumn, nor the many ways in which it will forever change the lives of everyone she knows. Because eighteen months before the first shot is fired at Fort Sumpter, the everyday citizens of Harpers Ferry will become helplessly entangled in an infamous occurrence, a lightning strike that will spark the long fuse leading to Civil War.

Common Worship: Times and Seasons President's Edition

This book reveals to us, secrets abound in Psalm 91. The secrets include, secret of warfare to be a champion, secret to make wealth, secret to pull down works of darkness, secret of joy and laughter, secret to protection and secret to assuring ways to be in the Lord. There is great blessing as we seek after God and chose to walk in his ways. This book tells us, God's promise is sure, strong and true, assuring us that in all we walk through, he is there for us. He reminds us we are not alone, even in the midst of problems or challenge, he will not let us alone. As a psalm of protection, it is commonly invoked in times of hardship; when life is draining and there seems to be no time or place to rest. This book of Psalm is reassuring, comforting and encouraging. When things appear to be their worst and our natural tendency is getting down and miss out on what God may be doing in our situation. When you read and digest this book, heaven shall open and locate you. Angels of God shall make it a duty to guide and guard you without limitation. Impossibility in your life shall disappear by fire, in the name of Jesus. While you jubilate, powers of darkness shall see the book as fire and "terrible" weapon in their kingdom. Hence, they shall surrender. You are great and lucky to come across this book. You are wonderful in the eyes of God. This book is a favour provoked. If you dwell in the secret place of the Most High, you will be favoured above your enemy. No lion, serpent or wild animal shall have field day in your life. This Psalm assured you of victory all the time. This is a book that reveals weapon of warfare to apply to be above and not below. In warfare, you don't tell God how big your storm is; rather, tell the storm how big your God is! You have a God who lives in the secret place, who knows in and out of every situation, a God loaded with protective power. This Psalm make you to sail through situation you had no clue how it is going to get better. The Lord shall pass through tribulation to make you see a brighter day. After digesting this book: You shall learn how to abide in the secret place of the Most High. You shall abide under the shadow of the Most High. You shall count gains and not losses. You shall silence the foes and witchcraft powers assign to trouble your destiny. You shall have trumpet of victory and sound it loud to the disgrace of the enemy. You shall sing your song and dance your dance. No matter the number of enemy that surrounds you, they shall fail and expire. No terror of night shall defeat you. No pestilence shall consume your wealth or kill you. No arrow that flies by day shall locate you. You shall fly with wings of God far above your expectation. The feather of God shall give you divine protection. Good luck, my brethren

The Secret and Power Of Psalm 91

You cannot make it without God's mercy. Do we just need God's grace in dark and shameful moments? Are prayers for mercy only for those times when we really mess up? Jonathan Parnell says we need God's mercy all the time. In fact, contrary to many church cultures, Parnell shows that asking God for mercy should be as regular as asking God for our daily bread. There's no doubt that David was in a terrible predicament when he first prayed the words of Psalm 51. It was a dark and shameful moment in the Bible, and one so dark and shameful it seldom feels relevant to us today. But David's most desperate prayer is really a prayer for all of us—and not just for our worst moments, but for our every moment. In these pages, you'll discover: how to pray a daily, memorable prayer derived from Psalm 51 how to practice daily repentance and soul care how to pursue God and experience his joy in the Christian life This is God's mercy, and it's Mercy for Today.

Fourth volume of the longawaited translation of one of Augustines classics and a great work in Christian literature. Newly translated by Maria Boulding, O.S.B., whose masterful translation of Augustines Confessions in the same series has been praised as being of a different level of excellence from practically anything else in the market (Bishop Rowan Williams, Monmouth, England). As the psalms are a microcosm of the Old Testament, so the Expositions of the Psalms can be seen as a microcosm of Augustinian thought. They recapitulate and focus the experiences of Augustines personal life, his theological reflections, and his pastoral concerns as Bishop of Hippo.

This series emphasizes a thorough analysis of textual, linguistic, structural, and theological evidence. The result is judicious and balanced insight into the meanings of the text in the framework of biblical theology. These widely acclaimed commentaries serve as exceptional resources for the professional theologian and instructor, the seminary or university student, the working minister, and everyone concerned with building theological understanding from a solid base of biblical scholarship. Overview of Commentary Organization Introduction—covers issues pertaining to the whole book, including context, date, authorship, composition, interpretive issues, purpose, and theology. Each section of the commentary includes: Pericope Bibliography—a helpful resource containing the most important works that pertain to each particular pericope. Translation—the author's own translation of the biblical text, reflecting the end result of exegesis and attending to Hebrew and Greek idiomatic usage of words, phrases, and tenses, yet in reasonably good English. Notes—the author's notes to the translation that address any textual variants, grammatical forms, syntactical constructions, basic meanings of words, and problems of translation. Form/Structure/Setting—a discussion of redaction, genre, sources, and tradition as they concern the origin of the pericope, its canonical form, and its relation to the biblical and extra-biblical contexts in order to illuminate the structure and character of the pericope. Rhetorical or compositional features important to understanding the passage are also introduced here. Comment—verse-by-verse interpretation of the text and dialogue with other interpreters, engaging with current opinion and scholarly research. Explanation—brings together all the results of the discussion in previous sections to expose the meaning and intention of the text at several levels: (1) within the context of the book itself; (2) its meaning in the OT or NT; (3) its place in the entire canon; (4) theological relevance to broader OT or NT issues. General Bibliography—occurring at the end of each volume, this extensive bibliography contains all sources used anywhere in the commentary.

Psalms 51-100, Volume 20

A plane crashes on a desert island and the only survivors, a group of schoolboys, assemble on the beach and wait to be rescued. By day they inhabit a land of bright fantastic birds and dark blue seas, but at night their dreams are haunted by the image of a terrifying beast. As the boys' delicate sense of order fades, so their childish dreams are transformed into something more primitive, and their behaviour starts to take on a murderous, savage significance. First published in 1954, Lord of the Flies is one of the most celebrated and widely read of modern classics. Now fully revised and updated, this educational edition includes chapter summaries, comprehension questions, discussion points, classroom activities, a biographical profile of Golding, historical context relevant to the novel and an essay on Lord of the Flies by William Golding entitled 'Fable'. The Works of John Donne, D.D., Dean of St. Paul's, 1621-1631

This work is called 'Apocalypse, Remote Vision' in inspiration of the documentary we made, where the idea of it is to address the results of the ability of human beings to see the future. US Navy Remote Viewing Covert Ops Lieutenant Colonel 'Ed Dames' talks about some covert missions – and makes it clear that others he can't talk about – recounting how his nation and Russia use psychics to anticipate events to come. In his day the Israelite prophet Joel had predicted that in the twilight of this age that we are experiencing, many people of all kinds would have intuitive, premonitory and prophetic dreams and visions. I always believed that there were messages in dreams, but I did not know how to interpret what I dreamed, and as time passed I assumed that it was rash to give deliberate interpretations to dreams; but after certain incidents in my family life I began to consider it important not to discard this service that our 'esenaurs' (guardian angels) provide us.

The Great Tribulation

HAVING DONE ALL TO STAND...STAND! Ephesians 6:10-14 says, "10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. 11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. 13 Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore..." We have been called to stand and to persevere in faith when trials come our way—but we never stand alone—we stand in the shadow of the Almighty. He is our God! He is our Defender! He is our Deliverer! And it is In Him that we receive our VICTORY! In fact, Psalm 91:1-11 promises us, "He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. 2 I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust." 3 Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence. 4 He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler. 5 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day, 6 nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. 7 A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. 8 Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked. 9 Because you have made the LORD, who is my refuge, even the Most High, your dwelling place, 10 No evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; 11 for He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways." 1 Peter 1:6-7 encourages us saying, "6 In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials, 7 that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ. It doesn't matter how impossible our situations may seem in the natural—God is capable of moving Heaven and Earth to see us through. Our job is to put on our spiritual armor, to stand on the promises of the Bible, and to persevere—UNTIL WE WIN!

The chapters include a question mark, poems, rituals, instructions, and obscure allusions and cryptograms. The subject of each chapter is generally determined by its number and its corresponding Qabalistic meaning.

When and Why Did the Horse Fly?

This study contends that existentialism is the perennial philosophy thus going against the assumption that it is a school of more recent provenance. Anthologies or introductory texts used begin with Kierkegaard (the so-called father of existentialism) and go on to emphasize Nietzsche, Sartre, and Heidegger. This book reflects a more catholic mapping, including three thinkers from the classical period (Socrates, Augustine, and the Stoics), who are argued to be just as 'existential' as more modern thinkers (who are also treated) and indeed influence the latter in important ways. Also included are three Americans (Thoreau, James, and Hannah Arendt) who are rarely considered existentialists. Furthermore, the book has a pedagogical emphasis, reflecting students' points-of-view: what they learn, how they react, questions they have, and how in general existentialism meets their education needs and expectations. It is, therefore, necessarily interdisciplinary in character, pointing out implications of existentialism for education, concerns like happiness, war and peace, democracy, sexuality, and terrorism.
