Después del fin del arte

En alguno de sus textos, Arthur Danto ya había situado el fin del arte exactamente en los años sesenta. Sin embargo, y a pesar de esta afirmación radical, ha continuado efectuando una crítica radical de la naturaleza del arte en nuestro tiempo. Después del fin del arte presenta la primera reformulación a gran escala de esa intuición de Danto y muestra como, tras el eclipse del expresionismo abstracto, el arte se ha desviado irrevocablemente del curso narrativo que Vassari definió para el Renacimiento, de modo que lo que debe hacerse es señalar el camino hacia un nuevo tipo de crítica que resulte capaz de ayudarnos a entender el arte en esta era posthistórica: un tiempo en el que, por ejemplo, las teorías tradicionales no pueden explicar la diferencia entre una obra de Andy Warhol y el producto comercial en el que se inspira. Se trata, pues, de plasmar una serie de consideraciones, tan rigurosas como amenas, sobre los más relevantes temas estéticos y filosóficos con respecto al arte que, a su vez, reflejan a la perfección el pensamiento de uno de los observadores más atentos de la escena estética actual. En este libro, pues, se reúnen, entre otras muchas cosas, el pop, el B+arte del puebloB; , el futuro de los museos y la contribución teórica de un hombre como Clement Greenberg -que hace ya mucho tiempo explicó el sentido de la modernidad sobre una base crítica fundamentada en la estética- para esbozar una nueva historia del arte que va desde la tradición mimética (la idea de que el arte es una fiel representación de la realidad) hasta los manifiestos de la época moderna (en los que el arte se define como la filosofía del artista). La conclusión es que ya no es posible aplicar las nociones tradicionales de la estética al arte contemporáneo, sino que hay que centrarse

Después Del Fin Del Arte

Después del fin del arte recoge las "Mellone Lectures in the Fine Arts" pronunciadas por Arthur C. Danto en el año 1995. En alguno de sus textos, Arthur Danto ya había situado el fin del arte exactamente en los años sesenta. Sin embargo, y a pesar de esta afirmación radical, ha continuado efectuando una crítica radical de la naturaleza del arte en nuestro tiempo. Después del fin del arte presenta la primera reformulación a gran escala de esa intuición de Danto y muestra cómo, tras el eclipse del expresionismo abstracto, el arte se ha desviado irrevocablemente del curso narrativo que Vassari definió para él en el Renacimiento, de modo que lo que debe hacerse es señalar el camino hacia un nuevo tipo de crítica que resulte capaz de ayudarnos a entender el arte en esta era posthistórica: un tiempo en el que, por ejemplo, las teorías tradicionales no pueden explicar la diferencia entre una obra de Andy Warhol y el producto comercial en el que se inspira. Se trata, pues, de plasmar una serie de consideraciones, tan rigurosas como amenas, sobre los más relevantes temas estéticos y filosóficos con respecto al arte que, a su vez, reflejan a la perfección el pensamiento de uno de los observadores más atentos de la escena estética actual. En este libro, pues, se reúnen, entre otras muchas cosas, el pop, el «arte del pueblo», el futuro de los museos y la contribución teórica de un hombre como Clement Greenberg que hace ya mucho tiempo explicó el sentido de la modernidad sobre una base crítica fundamentada en la estética para esbozar una nueva historia del arte que va desde la tradición mimética (la idea de que el arte es una fiel representación de la realidad) hasta los manifiestos de la época moderna (en los que el arte se define como la filosofía del artista). La conclusión es que ya no es posible aplicar las nociones tradicionales de la estética al arte contemporáneo, sino que hay que centrarse en una filosofía de la crítica de arte que pueda arrojar luz con la que quizá sea la característica más sorprendente del arte contemporáneo: que todo es posible.

Después del fin del arte

Danto propone una definición de la obra de arte como "símbolo encarnado" que pretende dar cuenta del carácter unitario de la historia del arte desde sus comienzos hasta nuestros días, evitando considerar el argumento vanguardista clásico, de carácter estético y formal, como el único capaz de dar sentido a la producción artística. Según Danto, nos encontramos en una época posthistórica, resultado de la evolución del arte hasta su autoconocimiento como actividad conceptual, más allá del modo formal o estético de representación, donde habría estado encastillado por las teorías filosóficas hasta el momento. Esta compilación de artículos aborda la crítica de Danto a lo estético como definitorio de lo artístico, central en su concepción global del arte, de su producción, interpretación y crítica, y de su carácter histórico y su relevancia para la vida humana. Diversos autores, Danto entre ellos, se aprestan a buscar un nuevo lugar para lo estético en nuestra comprensión de lo artístico, una formulación diferente de conceptos que siguen siendo valiosos, como estilo, procedimiento, crítica o experiencia, y una aproximación diferente a la relación entre arte y naturaleza o arte e historia.

Después del fin del arte

Examen de algunas claves procedentes del debate surgido en la estética romántica e idealista en torno al concepto de ironía, que ha continuado hasta la actualidad. Se presenta un entramado complejo de líneas de conexión entre la estética romántica y el arte moderno, mostrando las interferencias entre planteamientos, autores, teorías, filósofos o artistas, que imposibilitan cualquier análisis puro de la estética y el arte actuales.

Estética después del fin del arte

La Restauración de arte es una disciplina joven desarrollada a partir de teorías que suelen poner el foco en determinado "tipo" de prácticas según el relato del arte. Este libro propone un enfoque desde la filosofía basado en la sustancia de la obra de arte, como objeto de Restauración. Este punto de vista permite analizar los problemas de tipificación lógica que surgen de las "teorías" así como posibles soluciones. En Después del fin de la Restauración se define la Restauración como una disciplina inmanente al arte, su objeto. En este contexto se hace necesaria una re-definición del arte en términos de un relato diferente, dado por la sustancia de la obra de arte y no por su cronología histórica; definición que abarca hasta la proclamación del fin del arte y determina el fin de la Restauración; ambos fines simbólicos, conceptuales, operativos. La sustancia de la obra de arte, no es un todo homogéneo; tiene tanto de físico, como de metafísico y la obra de arte puede ser tratada como un «objeto», una «cosa», de carácter sistémico. Esto que es menos relevante para el relato del arte, sí lo es para el relato de la Restauración. ¿De qué hablamos cuando hablamos de arte? ¿De qué hablamos cuando hablamos de Restauración? ¿De qué hablamos cuando hablamos de autenticidad, originalidad, valor? ¿Cuál es la relación entre Restauración, autenticidad, originalidad y valor del arte? ¿Es necesario hablar de una filosofía de la Restauración y no de una teoría de la Restauración? ¿Es conveniente este enfoque sistémico, holístico? ¿Por qué? Estas son solo algunas de las preguntas claves de esta primera parte.

La ironía estética. Estética romántica y arte moderno

En momentos en que las ciencias sociales hallan difícil explicar los logros y los fracasos de la globalización, cuando el arco que va de la caída de las Torres Gemelas al derrumbe del mundo de las finanzas ha hecho del inicio de este siglo el gran territorio de la incertidumbre, una nueva mirada sobre el arte puede ayudar a comprender las grandes encrucijadas de la sociedad. ¿Qué dicen sobre esta época los desplazamientos de las prácticas artísticas basadas en objetos a prácticas basadas en contextos, hasta llegar a insertar las obras en los medios de comunicación, los espacios urbanos, las redes digitales y las formas de participación social?

Filosofía de la Restauración

The classic and provocative account of how art changed irrevocably with pop art and why traditional aesthetics can't make sense of contemporary art A classic of art criticism and philosophy, After the End of Art continues to generate heated debate for its radical and famous assertion that art ended in the 1960s. Arthur Danto, a philosopher who was also one of the leading art critics of his time, argues that traditional notions of aesthetics no longer apply to contemporary art and that we need a philosophy of art criticism that can deal with perhaps the most perplexing feature of current art: that everything is possible. An insightful and entertaining exploration of art's most important aesthetic and philosophical issues conducted by an acute observer of contemporary art, After the End of Art argues that, with the eclipse of abstract expressionism, art deviated irrevocably from the narrative course that Vasari helped define for it in the Renaissance. Moreover, Danto makes the case for a new type of criticism that can help us understand art in a posthistorical age where, for example, an artist can produce a work in the style of Rembrandt to create a visual pun, and where traditional theories cannot explain the difference between Andy Warhol's Brillo Box and the product found in the grocery store. After the End of Art addresses art history, pop art, "people's art," the future role of museums, and the critical contributions of Clement Greenberg, whose aesthetics-based criticism helped a previous generation make sense of modernism. Tracing art history from a mimetic tradition (the idea that art was a progressively more adequate representation of reality) through the modern era of manifestos (when art was defined by the artist's philosophy), Danto shows that it wasn't until the invention of pop art that the historical understanding of the means and ends of art was nullified. Even modernist art, which tried to break with the past by questioning the ways in which art was produced, hinged on a narrative.

After the End of Art

En El fin del arte Donald Kuspit sostiene que el arte ha llegado a su término porque ha perdido su carga estética. El arte ha sido sustituido por el «postarte», un término inventado por Alan Kaprow como una nueva categoría visual que eleva lo banal por encima de lo enigmático, lo escatológico por encima de lo sagrado, la inteligencia por encima de la creatividad. Remontando la desaparición de la experiencia estética hasta las obras y la teoría de Marcel Duchamp y Barnett Newman, Kuspit sostiene que la devaluación es inseparable del carácter entrópico del arte moderno y que el antiestético arte posmoderno constituye su fase final. A diferencia del primero, que expresaba el inconsciente humano universal, este último ha degenerado en una expresión de estrechos intereses ideológicos. Como reacción a la vacuidad y el estancamiento del postarte, Kuspit señala el futuro estético y humano que traen los Nuevos Viejos Maestros. Amplio e incisivo repaso del desarrollo del arte a lo largo del siglo XX, El fin del arte señala a las artes visuales el camino hacia el futuro.

"Desartización" (Entkunstung), es el término acuñado por T.W. Adorno a fines de los años 50 para referirse al proceso dialéctico por el que el arte va perdiendo progresivamente sus cualidades y rasgos tradicionales -la autonomía que mantuvo desde Diderot a Kant, Schiller y Hegel- para convertirse en otra cosa: en producto de la industria cultural, en víctima de las fuerzas ideológicas que dominan la sociedad administrada y en mera mercancía, es decir, en un producto cosificado que deja de ser un modo esencial de pensar el mundo. El autor entiende el "arte sin fin" como arte sin finalidad, objeto o función, en oposición a las doctrinas ilustradas y románticas, e intenta dar una explicación de la lógica conceptual que rige su planteamiento y su conexión con la evolución cultural.

Exit

El autor toma como hilo conductor el trabajo de dos de los artistas más relevantes del siglo XX: Marcel Duchamp y Joseph Beuys, y los pone en relación con el pensamiento de dos de los filósofos clave del mismo periodo: Martin Heidegger y Theodor W. Adorno. De este modo, Cereceda plantea algunos de los problemas fundamentales del arte contemporáneo en su relación con las distintas concepciones de la historia, la verdad, la belleza, los problemas de la creación y la recepción del arte. (Fuente: CENDEAC).

El fin del arte

Danto responde a la pregunta "¿Cuándo se produce el arte?" proponiendo la metáfora del lugar común y su paradójica aplicación al arte: "¿por qué los objetos más banales quedan transfigurados al ser convertidos en obras de arte? ; ¿en qué se diferencian a pesar de ser materialmente indiscernibles? ; ¿qué estrategia utiliza el arte de hoy para lograr estos fines?" Para responder a estas cuestiones, el autor relativiza el juicio subjetivo del gusto y nos invita a participar en los juegos de lenguaje y los ámbitos institucionales propios del arte moderno.

Humanidades para un siglo incierto

Son muchos los historiadores, filósofos y estudiosos del arte que afirman que el arte ha muerto. Arthur Danto en su obra EL FINAL DEL ARTE también hace la misma aseveración. Alrededor de esta afirmación han surgido muchas interpretaciones todas tratando de reforzar la idea de un supuesto fallecimiento de aquello que por siglos deslumbró al mundo como modelo de belleza y pericia creativa. Danto define los movimientos del arte contemporáneo como la expresión de un cadáver totalmente exánime. EL ARTE HA MUERTO, LARGA VIDA AL ARTE es una investigación que intenta descubrir, profundizar y resolver un cúmulo de incógnitas que surgen de esta afirmación: ¿EL FIN DE LA MUERTE DEL ARTE? ¿De verdad el arte está muerto? ¿Quién lo mató? ¿Cómo murió? ¿De qué murió? ¿Cuándo murió? ¿De verdad ha muerto o todavía agoniza? Los contemporáneos atestiguan que está muerto, los clásicos afirman que aún vive, ¿cuál es la verdad? Y... ¿Si el arte está muerto, entonces, que es aquello que se produce actualmente y se vende en las galerías con el nombre de arte? Y... ¿Si contra todos los pronósticos el arte contemporáneo si fuera arte? ¿Qué pasó en verdad? ¿Murió o no murió? ¿Lo mataron? Y si lo mataron hay que investigar ¿quién lo mató? ¿Está vivo? Si está vivo hay que buscar donde se encuentra. Así dijo Arthur Danto en su obra EL FINAL DEL ARTE: "El arte ha muerto. Sus movimientos actuales no reflejan la menor vitalidad; ni siquiera muestran las agónicas convulsiones que preceden a la muerte; no son más que las mecánicas acciones reflejas de un cadáver sometido a una fuerza galvánica." Arthur Danto, "El final del arte," en El Paseante, 1995, núm. 22-23. ¿Galvánica? ¡Suena como a monstruo de Frankenstein! Los más osados y quizás los más culpables del crimen que se investiga son:

Desartización

Este libro es parte de El arte del arte. Como el resto del 'arte del arte', tampoco tiene principio ni fin. A diferencia del resto del 'arte del arte' es una especie de 'juego del juego'. Como en cualquier juego, solo juegan al juego los que conocen sus reglas. Lea o sáltese las páginas que considere. Si no hay más imágenes es por respetar los derechos de autor. Puede leer en vacaciones o en días de trabajo, cualquiera día es bueno o no; será igual de divertido o aburrido. Las páginas no están numeradas. Le deseo, como siempre, mucha suerte; hay muchos modos de ganar o perder. Lo escrito aquí no es un manual [sino un conjunto fragmentado de modos que quizá le ayuden a encontrar alguno]. No son los principios de Groucho Marx pero, si no le gusta, tengo otros.

Historia y gráfica

Leading art critic and philosopher Arthur Danto here explains how the anti-beauty revolution was hatched, and how the modernist avant-garde dislodged beauty from its throne. Danto argues not only that the modernists were right to deny that beauty is vital to art, but also that beauty is essential to human life and need not always be excluded from art.

Problemas del arte contemporáneo@

La autora analiza cuál es la percepción social del arte y del artista contemporáneo. El objetivo es determinar si ésta influye en el consumo de las producciones artísticas actuales bajo la sospecha de que existe actualmente un distanciamiento entre público y artistas. Para ello, adoptando una metodología cualitativa, se plantea un estudio de caso de carácter instrumental. Una vez analizados los datos publicados sobre el consumo cultural del Ministerio de Cultura, se pretende conocer, por una parte, la actitud de la sociedad actual frente al arte y al artista contemporáneo mediante la realización de encuestas; y por otra, la visión de los profesionales del sistema del arte acerca de la problemática del consumo de las actuales producciones artísticas, mediante la realización de entrevistas. El marco conceptual busca conocer el origen histórico de la actual relación entre arte, artistas y sociedad, con especial atención al siglo XX, momento crítico de redefinición del arte y de ruptura dramática entre público y artistas, teorizado por autores como Ortega y Gasset, Danto, o Mayrata. También se exponen las principales aportaciones de Benjamin, Dorfles, García Canclini o Bourdieu, autor de importante referencia en este trabajo, en las que se exploran las nuevas relaciones de consumo cultural entre el público y las artes plásticas surgidas en el siglo XX. Finalmente se hace una breve evolución histórica del coleccionismo en nuestro país, presentando también la situación actual del mercado del arte en España. Aunque hay estudios sobre el consumo cultural de las artes plásticas, no existen trabajos que investiguen la problemática a partir de las opiniones de los principales implicados. Esta investigación pretende suplir el vacío existente exponiendo y confrontando la visión de las dos partes afectadas: la del público y la del propio sistema del arte, para diagnosticar así la naturaleza de las posibles barreras existentes, primer paso necesario para trabajar en la ampliación del público del arte contemporáneo.

The lead essay by Arthur Danto "addresses the possibility that art as it has been enshrined in the museums, galleries, and other canonizing institutions of modern culture has reached an end, that it has nothing more to do or say." The other essays in the book are reactions to the lead essay.

El arte del arte contemporáneo

Updated and revised, the Second Edition of Danto and His Critics presents a series of essays by leading Danto scholars who offer their critical assessment of the influential works and ideas of Arthur C. Danto, the Johnsonian Professor Emeritus in the Department of Philosophy at Columbia University and long-time art critic for The Nation. Reflects Danto's revisions in his theory of art, reworking his views in ways that have not been systematically addressed elsewhere. Features essays that critically assess the changes in Danto's thoughts and locate Danto's revised theory in the larger context of his work and of aesthetics generally. Speaks in original ways to the relation of Danto's philosophy of art to his theory of mind. Connects and integrates Danto's ideas on the nature of knowledge, action, aesthetics, history, and mind, as well as his provocative thoughts on the philosophy of art for the reader.

The edition is probably the more comprehensive book on Alberto Greco (b. Argentina 1931-1965) that has been published to date, comprising texts from different authors, letters, photographs, unpublished documents and a series of drawings made by artist Alberto Passolini, that recreate Greco's ephemeral artworks of which there are no records. Although in an attempt to clarify some aspects of his life, through the contribution of new documentation, we did not intend to distinguish to the extreme reality from fiction, myth from reality, but more precisely - to respect the rules of the game, we tried to "stretch" the legend and include more information about some episodes from imaginative strategies. We understand that, for certain, the interpretations proposed by the drawings of Passolini provide a new perspective that enriches what is so far known." (HKB Translation) --Page 22.

The Abuse of Beauty

This revised edition features ten new articles and is fully updated to take account of new critical approaches to post-war American art.

Estetica de la incertidumbre

At the height of the controversy over government funding for "obscene" works of art, internationally renowned conceptual artist Joseph Kosuth created "The Brooklyn Museum Collection: The Play of the Unmentionable," an exhibit about censorship at The Brooklyn Museum. His installation, one of the best-attended, most widely reviewed (and most controversial) of the year, juxtaposed works of art from throughout history that had been deemed politically, religiously, or sexually objectionable, with statements about the role of art in society by writers as diverse as Oscar Wilde, Adolf Hitler, and Jean-Jacques Rousseau. Using artworks drawn from the permanent collection of The Brooklyn Museum, "The Play of the Unmentionable" showed graphically how public and institutional ideas of obscenity and artistic value have changed throughout history - and continue to change today. This handsome book documents the exhibit with twenty-one pages of color and more than a hundred duotone photographs, and is designed to recapture the installation's juxtapositions of artworks and texts. In a major essay, art historian David Freedburg offers a detailed analysis of the installation, setting it in both the context of America's "culture wars" of the late 1980s, and of Kosuth's career. The Brooklyn Museum's director, Robert Buck, and its creator of contemporary art, Charlotta Kotik, also add critical perspectives; and Kosuth himself articulately describes his objectives in an interview. The result is a book that both represents the work of a major contemporary artist and boldly steps into the middle of the most controversial arguments about art and culture in America today. -- from dust jacket.

Arte Contemporáneo y Público: una Historia de Amor Entre la Queja y el Reproche

Danto writes about the contemporary art to be seen in museums and galleries, placing it in the context of the history of modern art and of current debates about essential ideas in our society.

El malestar de la modernidad

The first major survey of photography's place in recent art history.

Wake of Art

"Art history after modernism" does not only mean that art looks different today; it also means that our discourse on art has taken a different direction, if it is safe to say it has taken a direction at all. So begins Hans Belting's brilliant, iconoclastic reconsideration of art and art history at the end of the millennium, which builds upon his earlier and highly successful volume, The End of the History of Art?. "Known for his striking and original theories about the nature of art," according to the Economist, Belting here examines how art is made, viewed, and interpreted today. Arguing that contemporary art has burst out of the frame that art history had built for it, Belting calls for an entirely new approach to thinking and writing about art. He moves effortlessly between contemporary issues—the rise of global and minority art and its consequences for Western art history, installation and video art, and the troubled institution of the art museum—and questions central to art history's definition of itself, such as the distinction between high and low culture, art criticism versus art history, and the invention of modernism in art history. Forty-eight black and white images illustrate the text, perfectly reflecting the state of contemporary art. With Art History after Modernism, Belting retains his place as one of the most original thinkers working in the visual arts today.

Age of discrepancies

An anthology of writings on exhibition practice from artists, critics, curators and art historians plus artist-curators. It addresses the contradictions posed by museum and gallery sited exhibitions, as well as investigating the challenge of staging art presentations, displays or performances, in settings outside of traditional museum or gallery locales.
