How to clean up the data before import.

How to split or separate my debits from my credits.

Select all the payees and come into QuickBooks to create all those payees as customers (step by step) and then the same process but as vendors.

Go to accountant menu, click on batch enter transactions and start with checks or bank debits (copy/paste checks/debits).

Create an account and copy down to put every single transaction to an expense account in this case (example).

Copy/paste deposits or credits from excel to QuickBooks.

Reconcile (steps: click on reports, company financial, profit and loss standard, dates, last fiscal year, then click on banking and begin your reconciliation process).

Reclassify transactions (income and expenses).

Profit and loss progress after reclassifying transactions.
