QUESTION: How do you cope at St Paul's with the extraordinary surroundings? Also, is there a risk that the ordinary becomes the lowest common denominator?

QUESTION: It seems that we often gloss over the ordinary parts of Jesus' life for the large events, and that the real depth and teachings are found in between the key events...

QUESTION: What if your ordinary time is a bit grim, such as if you are in pain or lonely?

QUESTION: What of those who go their whole life without such an encounter? And is a lot of what you are saying related to our modern need for spectacle and grandeur?

QUESTION: How do you overcome being distracted during prayer?
