Faith & Fire

Hailed as the Indian version of The Celestine Prophecy, this is the true story of a young couple's yearning for a meaningful life. Madhu and Rajeev left the city to join a small community in the Himalayas. For seven years they lived under the tutelage of Aropa, an Englishman who had taken sanyas (renunciation). Madhu and Rajeev grew their own food, built their own mountain hut, and lived a truly simple life, all under Aropa's spiritual leadership. The couple followed his philosophy, believing that every experience is viewed as an opportunity to grow. Over time, questions arose that made Madhu and Rajeev's life perplexing; doors appeared to close on them, and their personal dilemmas peaked. But through it all, they never gave up hope. Their story speaks to the spirit as it lays bare a struggle to transcend suffering and discover what lies beyond it. By sharing the simple practices that intensified their search, as well as the powerful role of dreams, Madhu Tandan offers us her conviction that there are no dead ends in life; and gives us a glimpse of the mysterious, magical, uplifting support we can receive at every step of such a journey.

Faith and Fire Within Us

Sheila Ward shares not only her faith journey but also her deep and growing personal relationship both with Jesus and Mary, all in the context of the sacramental and Catholic faith. You will be as I was, inspired by her wisdom, faith, trust, hope, and love for Jesus and Mary and how they have constantly inspired her in good times and bad. I highly recommend this Journey with Trust and Fire Within! ""Fr. Bill McCarthy, MSA Director of My Father's House Retreat Center

Faith and Fire

A miraculous story of how Frank Grimes survived a chemical explosion that left him with life-threatening burns.

Journey With Trust and Fire Within

The world has wandered so far from God that nothing short of revival will reignite the fires of awakening. But God is about to set the world ablaze, and the nations will burn for him once again. In this book, filled with empowering inspiration and astonishing real-life stories, pastor and speaker James Levesque offers twelve biblical principles to help you return to the passion you felt at the beginning of your faith--and carry the torch to your community and nation. This book is an exhortation to action, to ignite the fire inside you and see your life activated for signs, wonders, and miracles. Say goodbye to powerless Christianity and become a burning brand for God.

Faith Through the Fire

Two thousand years later the call to follow Christ has been repacked to be smooth and trouble-free, filled with opportunity and promise but lacking risk, passion, and sacrifice. Is this really what Jesus died for? If He chose the way of the cross, where would He hesitate leading us? Is it possible that to follow Jesus is to live your life completely unleashed? Jesus never made a pristine call to a proper or safe religion. Jesus beckons His followers to a path that is far from the easy road. It is a path filled with adventure, uncertainty, and unlimited possibilities- the only path that can fulfill the deepest longings and desires of your heart. This is the barbarian way: to give your heart to the only One who can make you fully alive. To love Him with simplicity and intensity. To unleash the untamed faith within. To be consumed by the presence of a passionate and compassionate God. To go where He sends you, no matter the cost. Previously released as The Barbarian Way

Her books are sold on Amazon, Books a Million and other books stores. Co-Author: Erica Y. Wade- Is a first-time writer from Tennessee and has been an inspiration to her community. Her input in the book has given many uplifting quotes in overcoming obstacles of everyday life. Her struggles which many face to this day are displayed in the prints of this book. Alongside with the author, Ms. Wade has demonstrated that with God, she was able to put the pieces of her life back together and has continued to live every day with a smile on her face and raising her children. Her favorite quote: Every day I am given to be alive, I praise God, then I wait for the phone to ring. I know there is somebody out there waiting to hear my testimony.

Unleashed

So If my life as a single female pastor in full time ministry and mom of two all at the age of 28 when I wrote this book, could teach you anything from the lessons I learned in the hardest season of my life when my world and life as I knew it was crushed by doubt that had God possibly forgotten about me? and I was wrapped in shame and the inability to see how I would ever be able to come out after being crushed by fear, doubt and shame but the reality was God was having me pressed down and shaken together to come not just out but level up into my destiny regardless of the detours that were shut up in my way. I write this book for the one person searching the world to find hope while you are in the hardest time of your life, wondering how you are going to come out of this alive and then wondering but if I do, will it be painful still for the rest of your life? My life is your living proof that there is not just hope for you but the encouragement that you will not just come out alive, you will level up into your destiny and no matter how many detours your have come head to head with I need to tell you it's never to late. Your breakthrough has arrived and Gods love is on the way.

Faith On Fire

A woman's true story of rebuilding her faith in the aftermath of harrowing tragedy. In the early hours of March 7, 1999, Justina Page's life changed forever when a four alarm house fire ravaged and destroyed her family's home. In the aftermath, in addition to the heartbreaking loss of one of her 22-month-old twin boys, Justina and her husband had to cope with the physical injuries to both her and their surviving son. The Circle of Fire chronicles her struggle to overcome the devastating consequences of this catastrophic event. Justina's is a journey of discovery—that personal tragedy is not a life sentence to despair, anger, and continual pain and suffering, and that something positive can be salvaged from every agonizing experience, even when your faith has truly been tried by fire.

Destiny Detours

"Speak of a heartfelt story of my life while walking by divine faith, my living testimony." Forged in the Fire by Faith: this story expresses the trials and sufferings of a young woman growing up in Nigeria. This novella faithfully relates to how she grew up undergoing life's traumatic experiences at a tender age. This book also reveals the validity of a stable faith in Christ.

Lighting the Fire Within

Is your God distant? Have you experienced broken promises? Do fear, hopelessness and shame haunt your soul? Faith on Fire will provide inspiration and hope for those seeking to make sense of life. The hidden longings of the heart will be given a voice through the stories shared. Those who have lost their way, are spiritually hungry, thirsty and searching to fill the emptiness within, will find enthusiasm in the midst of community and discover their passion. The truth of God's presence is fleshed out with openness, honesty, and vulnerability. Each chapter offers beneficial tools for individual reflection as well as group discussions.

THE STORY OF FAITH BETWEEN PHILOSOPHY, SCIENCE, AND THE QUR'AN

This book traces the origins of a faith--perhaps the faith of the century. Modern revolutionaries are believers, no less committed and intense than were Christians or Muslims of an earlier era. What is new is the belief that a perfect secular order will emerge from forcible overthrow of traditional authority. This inherently implausible idea energized Europe in the nineteenth century, and became the most pronounced ideological export of the West to the rest of the world in the twentieth century. Billington is interested in revolutionaries--the innovative creators of a new tradition. His historical frame extends from the waning of the French Revolution in the late eighteenth century to the beginnings of the Russian Revolution in the early twentieth century. The theater was Europe of the industrial era; the main stage was the journalistic offices within great cities such as Paris, Berlin, London, and St. Petersburg. Billington claims with considerable evidence that revolutionary ideologies were shaped as much by the occultism and proto-romanticism of Germany as the critical rationalism of the French Enlightenment. The conversion of social theory to political practice was essentially the work of three Russian revolutions: in 1905, March 1917, and November 1917. Events in the outer rim of the European world brought discussions about revolution out of the school rooms and press rooms of Paris and Berlin into the halls of power. Despite his hard realism about the adverse practical consequences of revolutionary dogma, Billington appreciates the identity of its best sponsors, people who preached social justice transcending traditional national, ethnic, and gender boundaries. When this book originally appeared The New Republic hailed it as "remarkable, learned and lively," while The New Yorker noted that Billington "pays great attention to the lives and emotions of individuals and this makes his book absorbing." It is an invaluable work of history and contribution to our understanding of political life.

The Circle of Fire

Strives to inspire readers in a way similar to the fire that burned within St. Francis in his radical imitation of the life and gospel of Christ.

Forged in the Fire by Faith

"The Fire That Burns" is a spiritually-romantic compilation of poems of surrender, trust, devotion, commitment, and dedication, to the "Divine One." The verses within stimulate the mind, body, soul, and spirit with words of love and inspiration, awakening one's innermost being.

The Faith and Fire Within

Written with the high energy and taut focus of an episodic drama and the humor and grace of a master storyteller, this is the riveting true story of a young mother transformed by faith. Heather Davis and her husband, Lon, are blessed. They have a strong and loving marriage, a terrific four-year-old son, and a gorgeous new baby daughter named Remy. But one day, without warning, something goes terribly wrong. A seizure sends Remy to the emergency room, and from that moment, life as Heather knows it will never be the same-it will be better. As agonizing days of uncertainty pass, Heather learns a number of powerful lessons. She comes to know the insight, grace, and compassion that strangers can offer; she discovers the depths of strength and courage within herself, her husband, and her son; and she learns what happens within us when we surrender and open ourselves to hope-and the very real and benevolent effect of faith and prayer. "This is remarkable. Though Heather Choate Davis tells a story of genuine fear and distress, she never loses her capacity for startling humor-most often at her own expense. She never sentimentalizes; she is always absolutely honest." Walt Wangerin, Jr., "The Book of God"

Faith on Fire

Dealing with the storms of life can wear down even the most resilient person. It is easy to lose your way when you are being battered about. Chelle Lynne tells a compelling and inspiring story about her journey of faith as she cared for her daughter Alyssa who had special needs and eventually died at the age of 3. She lays out a remarkable journey from non-believer to Christian through an amazing little girl who never spoke a word, yet touched so many people. Her journey provides hope for those who feel hopeless and outlines strategies for keeping your faith in times of trouble. The principles discussed can be applied by anyone for any situation if they just remain open to the direction the Lord leads them. While her journey isn't complete, the Lord laid a burden on her heart to share her story. Chelle Lynne plays many roles in her life - wife, mother, sister, daughter, Soldier, and friend. She claims her most rewarding role is that of being a child of God. The mother of three children, her greatest challenge came in caring for her daughter Alyssa who was special needs and eventually died at the tender age of 3. Through that experience, she gained a new perspective on faith and now writes and speaks about the experience to help others who may be struggling with difficult times. She is a 21-year veteran of the Army and lives in Virginia.

Fire in the Minds of Men

Life is a journey and an adventure. At times, the road is a thrilling rollercoaster ride and at others it is paved with pains and potholes. Sometimes we lose our way and life careens out of our control but these events don't have to side track us forever. The detours we take can propel us onto the road that leads to our destiny while transforming us in the process. When we understand that difficulties are meant to move us forward in our journey, we learn to see obstacles as opportunities and trials as tests. The secret to moving forward on the road of life is a gift we all have deep within, called Faith. Faith is the fuel that fires up our engine. It is the power behind the promises and the light that dispels darkness. Without it, we will never become the people we were created to be or live the life we dream of. Simply put, Faith is believing in a better tomorrow, ditching victim mentality, and putting action behind intention. The Power of Faith contains simple steps that will guide you to: - Activate your secret weapon - Banish doubt, guilt, and fear - Be healed from emotional wounds - See difficulties as stepping stones to your destiny - Increase your confidence, contentment, and creativity - Achieve your goals and dreams - Enjoy a life of bliss and blessing Now is the time to take a step in a new direction. Open your heart and mind and embark upon your journey to Faith. You will never be the same!

The Fire of God

This book was written to encourage the body of Christ to know that we have biblical models from the Hall of faith that were Champions of Faith. These models will help to inspire each believer to personally live out their fullest potential as Faith Champions. We too like the heroes of yesterday can walk today courageously believing and experiencing the endless possibilities that comes through faith in God. Let mountain-moving faith arise in you as you journey through the pages of this book.

The Fire That Burns Within

See we all were given this life to live on earth, you must be thankful. We choose our steps, it's our responsibility to keep our conduct in order, being respectful, thoughtful, and loving on God's grounds. Now let me explain to you who is reading this document what this book has that you should hear. I share with you and the world my gift to encourage souls to have faith through the struggles, trials, and tribulations. I speak of the trust in God we should have and the belief of Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord to be received in the hearts of all. I love to speak of things to pursue for the reason we all should have that thought. See if you set in your mind to pursue things that are good for the heart and soul you will stay with peace. Seeing victory is a blessing knowing that you were blessed by God to win. My whole intention of writing is to be able to share what I know that will help our souls grow with stability within themselves. In this life we were given decisions to make, choices to gamble with, and options that are for us and not, which is also what I speak about. We must know that we are God's children with many abilities and so many gifts. In this world that God created for us, we should enjoy and share all the love that our hearts have inside with each other. Here is what I would like to leave with you about this book I have written, I want the world to know God is able and He will do for the world, me and you. The words that I share in this book are most definitely going to grab on to your soul and warm your heart with compassion from my soul to yours and the world's. The right move to make now is to check out what I have expressed from my God given heart and soul that I have shared in black and white. I know that you will find what I share to be respectful, and honestly expressed in a way for you to understand my purpose of writing this book.

Baptism by Fire: The True Story of a Mother Who Finds Faith During Her Daughter's Darkest Hour

This book offers an account of God and humanity in relation to both Old and New Testaments.

Forged By the Fire of Adversity

In this provocative book, nationally recognized speaker David Edwards delivers thirteen ways to ignite the fire within and learn what it means to live out your faith in a post-modern world. With boldness and cutting-edge insight, David Edwards turns the light on false perceptions of religion and gets down to the truth about the "cosmic" battle between light and dark. Describing the disconnect existing in "Sunday faith" and the rest of the week, Edwards defines character as "the life of God living in us." In this provocative book, nationally recognized speaker David Edwards delivers thirteen ways to ignite the fire within and learn what it means to live out your faith in a post-modern world. After reading just a few pages, you'll discover that Edwards' pen blazes with the same passion, enthusiasm, and humor that have made him a highly sought-after national speaker. Practical "Spotlight" exercises at the end of each chapter are designed to help you transfer the truth of each chapter into your everyday experience, and thought-provoking questions for both groups and individuals will help you ignite the light within your heart and teach you how to live the lit life.

The Power of Faith

Knowing the Old Testament temple was a place which temporarily housed the Lord Almighty, what connection is there between that house for the Lord and the New Testament temple? First, we must understand Yahweh guided man into how the temple was to be formed, this required faith placed into action. Second, within the temple grounds there were to be sacrifices given unto the Lord from a humble heart. Understanding, there was always to be consuming fire in the inner part of the temple. Third, the Almighty is Holy and there always shall be an awe, or healthy fear, of who He is. And finally, with as freely as the Lord's goodness has been received, in freedom it should be given. Therefore, when considering Solomon's construction and finalization of the Old Testament temple, Tolander deliberates on four generalities the Almighty uses to help bring the fullness of His presence to His people: faith, fire, fear, and freedom. Through the fulfilling of these concepts, Tolander saw how the Lord was thus causing an Awakening. Considering, this book helps bring forth a generalization of how Yahweh constructs His New Testament temple.

Faith Fire and Passion

This book is the fruit of Fr. Dubay's many years of study and experience in spiritual direction and in it he synthesizes the teachings on prayer of the two great doctors of the Church on prayer--St. John of the Cross and St. Teresa of Avila--and the teaching of Sacred Scripture. But the teaching that Fr. Dubay synthesized is not collected from Teresa and John for contemplatives alone. It is meant for every Christian and is based on the Gospel imperative of personal prayer and the call to holiness. All the major elements of these great teachers are ordered, commented on and put in the context of their scriptural foundations. Here is an outstanding book on prayer and the spiritual life written by one of the best spiritual directors and retreat masters of our time, and based on the writings of the Church's two greatest mystical doctors.

Champions of Faith

Finding Faith by Bob Jones. Author of The Fire Within No Empty Spaces Feeling The Spirit Allowing Abundance Practising Presence From The Heart A Message Of Love Finding Faith is a look at mankind's natural tendency to turn his back on what he can't see and not to believe or have faith in anything unless he can first touch, see or experience it with his physical senses. Bob Jones shows us that we can learn to trust in the unknown and thereby develop a faith and confidence in a higher power. Learning to go forward in our life's with a confidence and a clarity that we can only develop through finding our faith. Throughout its pages you will see insights into the ways that spirit has been guiding you in your own life, and how even when you have not been aware of it, that a higher power has always been there in the background, guiding your hand and catching you when you fall. Finding Faith is a message to look within your heart and to see for yourself and understand in a very real way, your own personal connection to God and The All That Is. A book full of insights and wisdom to help to guide you on your way to finding your own faith that is there inside each and every one of us. When we forget about what is going on in the outside world, and stop looking outside of ourselves for the answers we want in life, we will begin to discover that God has already given to us all the answers and guidance that we could ever need. If we were to only look inside, and listen to the small quiet voice of our intuition, which is our own personal connection to God and The All That Is. This book should help you to gently peel back the layers of fear, doubt and worry that may have been clouding your vision, and help you to see clearly again through the spiritual eyes that you will be able to open and look through, from finding your faith. Written in a clear and accessible way which is the style of Bob Jones, Finding Faith

The Bible, Theology, and Faith

The Faith and Fire Within Us was first published in 1944. "All in all, the more I study the democratic tradition, the greater cause I see for faith and hope." However American are the faith and fire within us, however vital to America in time of war, they are also a part of the great tradition of the past, of all English-speaking nations. It is the importance of this continuity from age to age that gives strength to Elizabeth Jackson's treatment of American ideas. That Raymond Clapper is a direct descendant of Sir Francis Bacon, Leslie Howard of Sir Philip Sidney, Henry Wallace of Milton and Cromwell is soon apparent. The book speaks for today as well as for yesterday. Its ideas are the ideas of America at any time, now given new impetus by the war. Miss Jackson's is a very personal credo, but it is unmistakably American. Elizabeth Jackson thoroughly enjoyed her teaching at the University of Minnesota, and from her background in English and American literature she drew the many quotations of her book. Ranging in time from the Bible to Benet; prose, poetry, epic, radio talk, all contribute to the interpretation of modern America. While Miss Jackson's own experiences with people and places provide the personal anecdotes, it is her intense feeling about American ideas and ideals that strengthen The Faith and Fire Within Us.
