Can these mandates be harmonized? For example, a project/programme could comply with several of these?

What advice would you provide if a team working on a DRR project asked you how would you ensure that it can comply with these gender mandates through its life cycle?

What would be the key gender elements that should be included in all programme/project's reports?

What would be the ideal report? And if this is not possible what would be the minimum gender reporting you would expect?
