

Dead Soon Enough

#mortality #life's brevity #time is short #impermanence of life #human existence

The stark phrase 'Dead Soon Enough' serves as a profound reminder of life's brevity and the inescapable impermanence of our human existence. It prompts an acute awareness of mortality, urging reflection on the transient nature of time and how we choose to spend our precious, ephemeral moments before they are gone.
