Praying Through the Gates of Time

Ever tried eating oranges when they are out of season? Notice that they have more chaff than juice? This is what happens to some of your prayers when not prayed through the gates of time. Did you know there are four watches in the day and four watches in the night? Do you notice that Jesus Christ, the apostles, the prophets, often made strategic intercession at specific watches? Do you often read, statements like, "At the hour of prayer...." Do you know that the productivity of your prayers is determined by how effectively you pray through these gates of time? Have you ever considered the relevance of praying appropriately through each day of the week? This is the first volume of 2 publications. In it, Abu Bako attempts to bring greater understanding to the body of Christ on the subject of praying through each gate of time.

Praying Through the Gates of Time

God asked Job some pertinent questions: "Knowest thou the ordinances of the Heavens? Canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?" [Job 38:33]. "Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place" [Job 38:12]. In Praying Through the Gates of Time, you are face-to-face with the systems that God set up in the heavenlies to guide and regulate activities, times and seasons on the earth. The realm of the physical was birthed and is controlled by the spiritual. The realm of the visible was birthed and is controlled by the invisible. But God left sufficient instructions on the patterns and protocols. Meteorologists have been able to leverage on the constants of nature to predict weather systems for days, weeks, months and even years, because of the inviolability of these constants of God. In creating the heavens and the earth, God used and instituted systems, so that neither He nor the man who would inherit the gamut would need to repeat certain procedures and protocols on a daily or even weekly basis

Praying Through Your Midnight

There are certain spiritual phenomena which occur at specific times of the day with profound consequences for your destiny and the lives of your family and that is why the Bible warns us to pray without ceasing. Everyone has been called to watch and pray by commanding their evening and morning. Here is a secret you should know, whoever controls the evening and night hours also controls the gate to the rest of the day, to do business, and to interact with people either for good, or for evil. In the realm of the spirit, gates are very important and critical to the dynamics, atmosphere and the destiny of families, people, cities, states, and nations. In Matthew 16:18, Jesus told Peter, "And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it." The Eight Prayer Watches exposes the times of sneak and covert attack tactics of the enemy and offers counter strategies to neutralize them for total victory!

Every month is peculiar and unique. So is the gate of every month, a midnight gate by western calendar system. The name of the month, numerical position and ordinal character in the calendar system are very important in advanced spiritual warfare. "My times are in your hands O Lord!" Employ these qualities and characteristics to speak by apostolic decrees to every month and the month shall yield you your portion. Every month of the western world calendar has spiritual characteristics pointing to a definitely idolatrous background and origin. This is not without consequence when it comes to the battle for the control of time. Some spiritual powers are struggling to be in control of your time. They pretend they have the time dedicated to themselves and can only release it for the use of man in exchange for worship. Command the Month@The Midnight Gate gives you the spiritual tools to take back the control and administration of time that the adversary has arrogated to himself. Shall we war!!!

Possessing the Gates of the Enemy

How is your country doing? Prosperous? Are the people happy, cooperative, united? Do they love God and obey his commands? Are all the enemies kept away? Or is it chaotic, constantly in turmoil, with disobedience and selfishness running rampant, everyone doing whatever they want, worshipping whoever they want? And are the enemies knocking on the front gates or, worse, knocking down the walls? These days the latter is more likely true which makes Jeremiah and Lamentations reflections of today's culture as much as Jeremiah the prophet's time in Jerusalem from 627 to 589 BC. Jeremiah was the prophet who God chose to speak to the nation of Judah and the city of Jerusalem during its darkest time—its collapse at the hands of Babylon and King Nebuchadnezzar. Jeremiah's strength is to be admired as well as his compassion. The people (specifically the religious leaders) drove Jeremiah insane with their disobedience to God and abuse to Jeremiah. And yet Jeremiah wept for them and the destruction of God's city. As you pray through Jeremiah, you'll be praying for your nation too and most likely weeping for its current state, hoping that God will restore your country to the way it once was or a better version of what it can be. PRAYING THROUGH THE BIBLE SERIES What is God's word? Simply put, it is the word of God spoken to people long ago who transcribed that information into writing. That writing was meticulously passed down for thousands of years to speak to us today. How did God speak to people in Bible times? -Audibly - God spoke directly to people who heard Him with their ears or in their heart. -Through situations - God spoke through the actions and events of this world. -Through people - God spoke through leaders, kings and prophets who proclaimed God's purpose. -Through prophecy - God spoke about future events, then those events happened. -Scripture - God spoke through His written word when people read those words later. -Prayer - God spoke through the prayers of people. PRAYING THROUGH THE BIBLE SERIES recognizes the power of God speaking to mankind through His Scriptures. God's word was not only meant to be read, but applied. We must apply ourselves to these passages and adjust our lives to God's will. The prayers contained in this book paraphrase the scriptures into a personal conversation with God. That way you can speak the words of God back to Him and make them your own. Today, God uses many ways to speak to us. This book incorporates those avenues of communication to ensure that God will speak to you during your quiet time with Him. Each section asks the reader to do six things. 1. Read the passage. Open up the Bible and read His Word. 2. Memorize the passage. A certain verse is given special focus. Commit it to memory. Remember it all day. 3. Understand the passage. Background information (Time, Characters, Place, What's Happening) help you to understand the context of the section you are reading. 4. Read the prayer. Read the written prayers as if they were from your heart. Don't recite them as words from a page, but a plea from your soul. 5. Keep praying. Prayer prompts are there to help you continue praying about other specific areas. Listen to the Holy Spirit and see if there is more you need to pray. 6. Journal your thoughts. In the space provided, write down some thoughts that you feel God said to you during this time. Every so often I've included a "Prayer Thoughts" page to give you more room to journal your thoughts and write down prayer requests as you go through the Bible. Get ready to spend some quality time with God. Get ready for God to speak to you through His Word.

MYSTERY OF THE MIDNIGHT PRAYER

"God needs giants today, and we receive giant strength by waiting on Him." —Will J. Harney Most believers do not rise to their full privilege in prayer. Successful prayer cannot be rushed. If we want to hear from heaven, we must allow time for God's voice to fully break through the din of life. When we have a tremendous amount of work to be done for the day, we dare not leave out prayer. As Martin Luther observed, "I have so much to do that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer." The real danger in not taking sufficient time to commune with God and implore Him for our requests is the slow erosion of the Spirit's voice, when life's static distracts a believer from what is truly important and necessary for a successful life. In this classic work on effective prayer, Will J. Harney reminds us that there are vast rewards in store for those who make prayer a priority. Prayer does not need to be a chore for the growing Christian, for it is one of the highest privileges accorded us. But to receive our divine answer, we must "pray clear through"—that is, pray continually and with urgency until, at last, we hear from heaven. "And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him." (1 John 5:14–15)
