Pawverbs for a Dog Lover's Heart

A dog's love is one of life's greatest blessings. Your dog doesn't ask you to be anyone other than yourself. When you're with your dog, you don't have to worry about what you say or what you look like; all your canine friend wants is you (and food, and belly rubs, and treats). But dogs are even more than our best friends—they can be our wise teachers, sharing lessons that stay in our hearts forever. Every day, they show us the value of listening and loyalty; what it means to trust and obey; and the importance of just sitting with someone and being a friend. God has given us animals, ultimately, to point us to Himself—to the One who is always there and who loves unconditionally. Pawverbs for a Dog Lover's Heart is a collection of stories with beautiful photographs, each featuring a real-life animal and sharing a principle from the book of Proverbs. You'll not only find inspiring and heartwarming tales, but spiritual truths to touch your heart and remind you of God's unfailing love, wisdom, and grace.

Miracle Dog Miracle God

I'm more convinced than ever that if you're going to write a book it must come from deep inside you. I believe that's so true regarding the writing of any good book, but particularly this volume. While my first published work "The Seer's House" arrived in one single vision at 3 o'clock in the morning, my second endeavour "Miracle Dog; Miracle God" took a lot longer to emerge. For over ten years following my first publication, I was caught up in the mission field in Romania and literally didn't have time to write a follow-up. Indeed, only after I'd returned from Romania and been separated from my best friend

Snowbell, our Golden Retriever Labrador, did I really begin to accept that another book may be about to be birthed. I couldn't shake off the writing of this book and so eventually I sat down and wrote it. Nevertheless, "Miracle Dog; Miracle God" hasn't been the easiest manuscript to create for various reasons. Trying to keep to my subject matter what God the Father taught me about Himself through the love of a dog, when there was so much more to tell about our Romanian endeavours, hasn't been straightforward. Writing each chapter as a parable was equally challenging, but in the end I think I've managed to produce what has been within me since 2008. Finally, the emotion I experienced writing about this remarkable little dog was quite unexpected. On numerous occasions I would have to literally down tools and shed tears, while at other times I laughed out loud and so enjoyed reminiscing about happier moments with Snowbell. My desire is that "Miracle Dog; Miracle God" will make you laugh and cry, yet also instruct you about the amazing unconditional love of God. After all, that's exactly what happened to me when I was introduced to Snowbell, a beautiful gift from God to my life, if ever there was one.

Christian Lessons from Dogs

The story of how a tiny dachshund gave her owner, Jennifer, significant insights into life, faith, and God's love for all of creation is told in the book God of All Creation. James, a devoted dog lover and co-host of the television show Life Today, explains how observing all animals in creation and his own dog Princess' antics reveals "expressions of God's love, lessons of His grace, warnings against sin, and other timeless truths." Jennifer' lessons from his pets and the wild animals are brought to life in heartwarming tales and charming line drawings. You will also learn to recognize God's voice, submit to Him, and put your complete trust in Him as a result of his inspiration and spiritual insights. This book gives you knowledge of the following about dogs and Christian living Lessons for Christian life from a dog! Seven Things Dogs Teach Us About God Joshua 14:6-15, Lessons from a Dog Is dog also a creation of God yes or no?

Wit and Wisdom for Dog Lovers

Two amazing things are true about dogs. Number one, the love that your dog has for you is as close as you will come on earth to the love that Jesus Christ has for you: unconditional. Number two, the relationship between a dog and his master is strikingly similar to the relationship between a believer in Jesus Christ and God. These two realizations got the wheels turning and were responsible for Psalms and Proverbs for Dogs. The parallels will make you laugh while also making you contemplate your relationship with your dog and God. Find joy, inspiration, and fruitful growth in both relationships through these verses.

Amazing (Furry) Lessons from a Dog's Life You'll be enthralled by this story of a man and his lovable Labrador retriever, Hannah, and what their canine friendship can show us about life, grace, and long walks in the park. Hannah was Dave's best friend. He couldn't imagine starting a day without her tail wagging an energetic greeting, her body wiggling with sheer gratitude when her food dish was filled, and her unbridled enthusiasm for tennis balls. (How she fit three tennis balls in her mouth at once he'll never know.) So when Dave first learned of Hannah's cancer diagnosis, he decided to take whatever time he had left with Hannah to cherish the moments and capture his thoughts in a journal. As he wrote about his canine friend, he soon realized that Hannah was an able (and furry) mentor of faith, grace, kindness, and forgiveness. The lessons were invaluable: from being present to trusting the master. When Hannah lived well past the expected time frame, Dave started to see that the insights he was gaining were more than just journal entries about a family pet. Through Hannah's antics, God was preparing Dave for life itself. You won't want to miss this heartwarming tale of a dog who knew how to live . . . and showed her owner how.

Whether you're looking for a great collection of sermon illustrations, or just want to enjoy reading amusing and inspiring anecdotes drawn from a lifetime in the ministry, "Windows For Life" is a fascinating book you'll want to include in your library. In this companion to his popular "Windows For Sermons," Don Yocom shares a treasure trove of humorous and insightful stories on a wide range of topics. Each "window" sheds light on faith and life, and is an excellent source of material for preaching and teaching. And a convenient topical index makes it easy to quickly locate items on a specific subject. "In his second "Windows" book, Don Yocom shares brief stories and one-line bits of wisdom that will be of interest for public speaking, sermons, or simply reading. The index is especially helpful." Edwin Maynard former Assistant General Secretary, United Methodist Communications "Don Yocom displays an uncanny ability to take current events (such as the war on terrorism) and exploit their homiletical potential, thus providing resources for the preacher who is endeavoring to project pulpit relevance." Emerson S. Colaw United Methodist bishop (retired) "What a delightful read! The deeper meanings of life are perhaps best communicated through our life stories. A seasoned pastor shares stories from the storehouse of his preaching, enhancing our ability to see and to be whom God is gifting us." George O. Campbell Senior Pastor/Chaplain, Otterbein-Lebanon Retirement Community Lebanon, Ohio "Full of humor, wit, and wisdom, Windows For Life is a refreshing pause -- it's pleasant and relaxing reading. We need more of this in today's world." William Augman Springfield District Superintendent West Ohio Conference, United Methodist Church Don R. Yocom has preached engaging, inspiring sermons for more than a half-century in several Methodist congregations in Indiana, Maryland, and Ohio. He is also the author of "Windows For Sermons" (CSS).

Dogs Are Gifts from God

Whether you are a Christian, a dog owner or both, this book gives you tips, advice and examples in all those sphere's, interspersed with true stories of the author's time as a Police dog handler and Church Lay Minister. The work of the Holy Spirit can inspire our lives and produce good fruit. The Apostle Paul lists these positive influences in our lives. I have used these gifts to explain all aspects of our lives, but in particular how we care for and train 'man's best friend' the faithful dog. This book looks at how we can develop our Christian teaching in respect of our faithful friend. I have incorporated numerous stories of my time as a Police dog handler, some amusing, some serious and some quite sad, but all backed up with how scripture teaches us to behave, and when we face problems how God always has the answer. D.T. Poole.

Windows for Life

Dogs are referred to as "man's best friend." They love their masters unconditionally, no matter how the master behaves. Even if the master has flaws, a dog will still show love and devotion. They are forgiving, compassionate, and attentive, and what do they ask in return? To be loved--simply, honestly, all a dog wants is to be loved. So what do dogs have to do with God? More than you might think In Walking with Dog, Labrador enthusiast and dog lover Tom Vint provides an enlightening view of our loving housemates. He asks the question: What if God built human relationships with dogs as mirrors of God's relationship with His people? After all, God loves us unconditionally. God is willing to forgive our flaws. God is always attentive, and He only asks for our love in return. As Christians, we were all puppies once. We all had need of training and guidance in the ways of our Master. We were never perfect; we will never be perfect. Yet God gives us loving discipline to keep us on the right path, just as we do with our furry friends. There are heartwarming correlations between God and dogs, and Christian dog owners will relate. Dogs may be man's best friends, but we are God's best friends, and He is waiting to open His arms and love us.

Walking with Dog

We spend countless hours training our dogs, but how often do we consider what they have to teach us? "Our canine companions aren't just our best friends," explains Tami Simon "They naturally embody many of the spiritual principles we ourselves aspire to." The Dharma of Dogs shares the reflections of Buddhist writers and other teachers who have found a source of deep truth and practical wisdom beneath the furry surface of our four-legged friends. For anyone who loves dogs--and who has learned and grown through this special relationship--these essays offer humor, solace, inspiration, and insight into the life lessons our dogs make available to us. Readers join bestselling authors such as Alice Walker, Geneen Roth, Lama Surya Das, Mark Nepo, and others to explore such themes as unconditional love, connecting with nature, facing our fears, and more.

What My Dog Has Taught Me about Life

The bond between humans and dogs is more intense than our bond with any other species there's not even a close second. Dogs are more than just a pet; they are trusted companions. They help us hunt, guard our homes, look after our livestock and even our children and, over time, do so many useful and wonderful things that it boggles the mind. This compilation of heart-warming dog stories illustrates the pure love of these amazing creatures, including extraordinary instances and first-hand accounts of bravery, friendship, loyalty, devotion and companionship down to their very last breath. There's a reason we call them man's best friend. No matter the situation, your dog is happy to see you. You are greeted with the same enthusiasm each and every time you walk in that door. A dog has the ability to live in the present moment. They don't regret the past or worry about the future. While we often ask so much of them, they require almost nothing in return. You can ask your dog to chase a Frisbee, take a nap on the couch, herd some sheep, or run around a show ring and he'll do it, happily, for hours on end. He only wants to be fed, and told he's good, and most of all loved. If a dog has love, he really needs nothing else. In the presence of a dog, somehow, nothing else matters. A dog is handing out pure love, sparing no expense, and asking absolutely nothing in return. Perhaps American Humorist Josh Billings said it best: "A dog is the only thing on earth that loves you more than he loves himself."

The Dharma of Dogs

The bestselling authors of "How to Be Your Dog's Best Friend" show how their strong connections with dogs and the natural world stem from the principles of monastic life. 14 line drawings.

Dog Love - An Unbreakable Bond

'I'm looking for the words and writing for those who can't imagine the words.' Mark Meynell articulates a heart pain that most of us simply couldn't express. He connects strongly and immediately with fellow cave dwellers. We relive significant moments from boarding school, Uganda, Berlin and London. We visit the Psalms, Job and The Pilgrim's Progress. If you're after neat conclusions and a fair-weather faith, this is not for you. This book serves up gritty reality and raw honesty, but also the heartfelt hope that the author's brokenness 'can somehow contribute to another person's integration' and 'inspire their clinging while beset by darkness or fog or blizzards'. Contents 1 The mask 2 The volcano 3 The cave 4 The weight 5 The invisibility cloak 6 The closing 7 The way 8 The fellow-traveller 9 The gift Appendix 1 Managing the symptoms Appendix 2 Unexpected friends in the cave Appendix 3 Some words from inside the cave

In the Spirit of Happiness

A compassionate, shame-free guide for your darkest days "A one-of-a-kind book . . . to read for yourself or give to a struggling friend or loved one without the fear that depression and suicidal thoughts will be minimized, medicalized or over-spiritualized."—Kay Warren, cofounder of Saddleback Church What happens when loving Jesus doesn't cure you of depression, anxiety, or suicidal thoughts? You might be crushed by shame over your mental illness, only to be told by well-meaning Christians to "choose joy" and "pray more." So you beg God to take away the pain, but nothing eases the ache inside. As darkness lingers and color drains from your world, you're left wondering if God has abandoned you. You just want a way out. But there's hope. In I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die, Sarah J. Robinson offers a healthy, practical, and shame-free guide for Christians struggling with mental illness. With unflinching honesty, Sarah shares her story of battling depression and fighting to stay alive despite toxic theology that made her afraid to seek help outside the church. Pairing her own story with scriptural insights, mental health research, and simple practices, Sarah helps you reconnect with the God who is present in our deepest anguish and discover that you are worth everything it takes to get better. Beautifully written and full of hard-won wisdom, I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die offers a path toward a rich, hope-filled life in Christ, even when healing doesn't look like what you expect.
