A business [entity] is an organization or any other entity engaged in commercial, professional, charitable or industrial activities. It can be a for-profit entity or a not-for-profit entity and may or may not have a separate existence from the people/person controlling it.

Identifying Business Opportunity

From that picture, kindly identify a PROBLEM and identify possible business opportunities that you can capitalize on.

As you craft your creative presentation, I encourage you to use the language and concept of your choice that fits to your linguistic, cultural, socio-economic or religious backgrounds. You can use the concept of your choice that will suit your respective cultural or indigenous backgrounds.

Based on your chosen picture during the COVID-19 PANDEMIC, what is your identified problem?

Based on your evaluation, were you able to think of possible solutions or possible business opportunities from your problem? Why do you say so?

Dictionary defines business as a commercial or mercantile activity engaged in as a means of livelihood.

ORIGIN OF THE WORD The word opportunity is taken from the Latin word opportunus or opportunitas which means fit, convenient, suitable or favorable. It is pronounced as opportu:ni:ty or It is a consumer need or want that can potentially be met by a new business.

Changes in the environment give rise to needs, wants or problems of an individual and lead to business opportunities.

Opportunity Seeking is the first step and is the most difficult process of all due to the number of options that the entrepreneur will have to choose from.

Opportunity Screening is the process of cautiously selecting the best opportunity. The selection will depend on the entrepreneur's internal intent and the external intent which will address the compelling needs of the target market. It will also depend on the risk appetite which refers to the entrepreneur's tolerance of business risks.

The entrepreneur should say no to an opportunity if it does not contain any of these business opportunity elements: α Has superior value to customers Solves a compelling problem, issue, a need or a want Is a potential cash cow or source of cash flow Matches with the entrepreneur's skills, resources, and risk appetite

Innovation is the process of positively improving an existing product or service. It is a key driver for economic growth.
