Secondly, I've really got to make sure that I'm supporting the ambitions of our staff Especially as they pursue their projects and programmes in research, and in scholarship

We will develop and focus more around our research clusters - bring on a couple more research clusters, for example: around applied economics; entrepreneurship enhancing the areas of service and operations, but also, I want to make sure that we provide sufficient support for colleagues to undertake multi-disciplinary work

Third, we've got to expand the way in which we work with our external partners - friends of the school. We've got to work much more effectively

So overall, I want to make sure that we enhance the reputation of the school within Scotland and internationally
