cut out the shapes

develop your own plush pattern cut out your pieces cut out all your individual pieces begin working on cutting out the fabric tracing your pattern pieces tracing your pattern pieces on the back of the fabric work on tracing your shapes and transferring your patterns onto the fabric traced two of the belly patterns add the stitching attaching the pieces to the body force the material through fleece leave one small hole open take into account your seam allowance thicker stick it into the little crevices add the fluff to the inside take your seam allowance into account secure that little magnet in with a piece of polyfill push all the little beans down into the foot put nothing but polyfill inside the bodies to pack the face of my plushies with even more stuffing then we begin the long and tedious process of filling the body involves fluffing out the neck and sewing in that final hole fill the gaps with the holes add a little bit of floof on the cheeks start sewing the legs onto the body ladder stitching the hip bone secure the stitch right at the back of the butt put extra stuffing up inside the leg begin rese owing the leg line up all the pieces working our way around the tail side by side tie a knot attach the arms secure a piece of thread to the bottom of the hand loop tied the knot attach the ear to the plushie attach them to the body add in all the other details mount the cut shape onto a piece line the fabric use something like an iron-on interfacing cut your pattern pieces fixed your thicker lining to the back of your elephant cut this out with pinking shears pop your finger inside between the two pieces of cotton fabric stitch the ear of the elephant to the elephant line up the top of his trunk leave a turning gap turn the entire body out turn out these pieces of the soft toy sew his bottom up turned in the raw edges sew with small stitches the folded edges wrap your embroidery thread around your fingers about 10 times thread them back with a needle with a length of embroidery cotton using two strands of black embroidery thread make a very small oversew stitch to secure fill it in with a neat satin stitch fill in the center of the eye
