put the stitching holes start punching those holes start punching the holes along this guideline leave an indent

mark these holes

start doing your spacing a little bit between each one begin lacing

take and round off the corners just a little put some dye along the edge slide the lace between those two layers of the metal starting about five holes in from the end running the lace through your fingers running it through your fingers pull the lace snug

stretch the lace pulling your stitches too tight pull that stitch down make a new x go through the corner hole the lacing fit

go through these corner holes multiple times splice in a new piece bring the needle up between the two pieces of leather a dry splice undo some stitches unlace three or four stitches pull that needle out between the two pieces of leather
