Forward-looking and targeted poverty reduction for post-COVID recovery: Latest policy experiences - Forward-looking and targeted poverty reduction for post-COVID recovery: Latest policy experiences by United Nations ESCAP 74 views 2 years ago 1 hour, 22 minutes - Forward-looking and targeted poverty reduction, for post-COVID recovery: Latest policy experiences from Asia,-Pacific.

Asia and the Pacific has achieved remarkable success in reducing poverty... given the high level of multidimensional poverty.

Even as the region is on track to achieve the main objective of SDG 1, significant gaps remain. requiring investments in four key areas to end poverty and hunger.

Such investment needs are higher for LDCs and South Asian countries...

Policy considerations

Both economic growth and redistributive policies have contributed equally to reducing poverty during the period 2015-2018; redistribution in 2012- 2015; growth in 2009-2012; redistribution in 2006-2009 Distribution of the poor by sector of employment of the household head (2018)

The Philippines until very recently has had a boom-bust cycle of growth - growing for a few years and then slowing down

Lower inflation and more price stability in recent years

Recommendations moving forward
