... when looking for a CPSM, Certification Review, Course.

Do they provide the study materials?

If no, make sure this cost is added to the cost of the course to determine the actual cost.

Are the instructors listed in the Train

The-Trainer Roster on the ISM Website? - This means the instructor has been trained by ISM and should present a quality course.

What are others saying about the course?

Testimonials from our peers help us determine if the course is best for our individual and unique ways of learning

Time is the most expensive commodity we invest in our professional development and certifications, so make sure the timing and location meet your needs.

If not, call the company to see if they can set up a course in your area

Can I find free resources that help me evaluate if the company can deliver?

Preparing for the certification is not easy. Many people can do it on their own with a little help.

Some companies offer "a little help" at no cost. If you need more in-depth training, consider a live review course.

Of course ISM members should get a deal. Always call and ask for specials. Many companies are running promotions that may or may not be listed on the website.
