

six months of grace no time to die

#grace period #limited time #impending deadline #critical juncture #time running out

Explore the profound implications of a fleeting grace period, where every moment counts and the looming end demands immediate action. With only six months of reprieve, this narrative delves into the urgent pressure of a critical decision, underscoring that there truly is no time to die when faced with an impending, life-altering deadline.

Introduction

Nick and Joni's friendship

Joni's story

I am living like a hypocrite. I am enslaved to sin. Jesus, would you do something in my life?"

I think it was their love that began to soften my heart.

Through months of suicidal depression....

How does Jesus meet us in pain and depression?

My advice here: I would not resist the depression. I would move into it.

When my pain gets really hard. I wake up in the morning, and I think....

And it is just at times overwhelming. But instead of resisting it, and instead of getting

I walk into that depression and talk back to it.

I'll fly away!

"In everything give thanks for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." 1 Thessalonians 5:18

How did you learn to thank God after your accident?

How could a good God allow this to happen?

God has changed me!
