Evidence We're Living In A SIMULATION - How Evolution Hid The TRUTH | Donald Hoffman - Evidence We're Living In A SIMULATION - How Evolution Hid The TRUTH | Donald Hoffman by Tom Bilyeu 1,465,804 views 3 years ago 2 hours, 21 minutes - Most of us believe we perceive reality as it generally is, with perhaps some slight distortions. But mathematical models based on ...

Most of us believe that we see reality as it is. But we don't.

Donald describes how mathematical game theory explains natural selection

Donald talks about a game he created to simulate evolution

Seeing the truth and seeing what you need to survive are very different things

Evolution gave us the equivalent of a desktop interface, not the truth

Every creature has a different user interface and perceives a different reality

Science, progresses because we push our best ...

If we let go of logic and reasoning, then we have nothing left

There will always be unprovable truths. You can never know it all.

Evolution has created various forms of virtual reality

Donald describes the process by which you "see" an apple

Evolution tells us that the language of space and time does not describe reality

Donald proposes that reality is a vast social network of conscious agents

A conscious agent creates their interpretation from their experiences

What is consciousness?

What does a conscious agent need to do?

Donald and Tom discuss fascinating cases of split-brain patients

If your visualization tool is very good, it can focus on finer and finer detail

If space-time is doomed then is causality doomed as well?

Tom and Donald discuss the nature of cause and effect

Donald discusses free will and its relationship to cause and effect

The self is a construction just like space and time

You can never experience yourself choosing

Donald describes the experience of realizing that he is just inside a VR headset

What created math?

What's the difference between math all the way down and turtles all the way down?

Tom and Donald discuss the double-slit experiment in physics

Donald talks about his wife and his marriage

Donald and Tom discuss the possibility of taking off the headset

Donald and Tom discuss why they haven't used psychedelics

Since space-time is doomed, what's next?
