Lucy Grayford is devastated when she discovers that her daughter is not actually hers—six years ago there was a baby mix-up. Then she meets single dad Dominic Grayling and they discover they now have each other's biological child. She can't bear to lose the child she's grown to know and love...

Cherish Our Children

This book traces the process of children's mental development from birth to adolescence. It also contains some important topics such as Having Favourites, some "how-to's" in separated families, and Reactive Parenting. The book contains stories that illustrate good and bad outcomes from parenting that are drawn from Dr Nisbet's clinical experience and her and others' parenting experiences. The stories are analysed and presented with reference to literature, clinical knowledge, and research by Dr Nisbet and others. Key points are highlighted at the end of each chapter for easy reference. The book is an easy one to read; not a book for reading in one sitting, but for "dipping into" and selecting those parts that are of interest or relevance to the reader at the time.

Cherish Our Memories for Mum

Although the seven of us have dispersed across the country in our adult lives, we still get together occasionally for family reunions. When we do, the conversation often turns to stories beginning with, Do you remember when. One day we decided that some of these stories should be written down, especially since some of the most cherished stories dealt with our grandparents. We were afraid that these older stories would become lost in the mists of time, and we were aware that our more recent stories would someday be old stories to our children and grandchildren. Thus was born the idea of this book. We have all contributed remembrances to this little volume and we hope that our children will be able to know more about where their parents came from. Compiling this book has been one more enjoyable and unifying activity for a family that continues to cherish each other.

A Family Saga

All parents want their children to have success and happiness. We know that true joy and lasting satisfaction come only through doing it God's way. Our children live in a crazy mixed-up world. As parents we are thinking, 'How do I raise kids to love the Word of God? Or to have respect for others? Or to cherish the things that are more important like honesty, forgiveness, peace, patience, and love? "My word for you is. "It starts on the inside. "Use this book to build the foundation that will help your children know the answers are within them. Watch God, by His Spirit, forever alter your child's perspective on life and their temperaments. Children may be young, but they are deciding their values for life of an early age. Take this opportunity to mold those values. - Phyllis Tucker

"Sara Dimerman makes a convincing case that developing character in our children is one of a parent's most important tasks. In Character Is the Key, she provides an innovative, step-by-step template for families who want to explore the values they cherish and deepen their commitment to living by those values." —Caroline Connell, Editor, Today's Parent Would you like to see your children: Taking greater initiative at home and school? Able to put themselves in others' shoes? Taking more responsibility for their actions? Valuing togetherness as a family and wanting to spend more time with you? Consistently treating peers, adults and themselves with respect? Persisting through challenges and not giving up prematurely? Being honest even when the truth is difficult to share? Courageously facing fears? Motivated to help with chores around the house? Less influenced by negative peer pressure and able to stand up for what they believe? Looking forward to a bright and successful future? Then Character Is the Key will help! The character education movement, implemented by educators around the world, is an incredibly successful and growing phenomenon. When important character attributes like honesty, integrity, and fairness are modeled and taught to kids, they develop an inner compass that continues to guide them in a positive direction. The missing link has been helping parents with their crucial participation at home - until now. Character Is the Key

"Sounds are all around us—traffic, sirens, noise. But do you hear the whispers, the sounds only God can create? Do you listen, do you hear? In your heart, God can speak to you. He can strengthen you by giving you grace to make a difference in this busy, noisy world. It is through the Holy Spirit, God's voice within us, that allows us to be a witness for His Kingdom. Are you ready, what do you hear?" You're invited to join Kathi Lee Grand as she shares her journey, the one she's experienced with God since 2000. This includes her "spiritual encounters," when she first began to hear the Holy Spirit through that "still, small voice." To date she has received thirteen God-inspired words. Each of these words is introduced in a chapter along with the acronym and referenced Scripture verses. Kathi Lee both encourages and challenges readers to explore their own journey as they too seek to hear God's voice. May God richly bless you, as you begin your journey with Him as you also experience His voice.

Before You Sleep

Babies are so easy to love. It feels so natural to love a newborn child unconditionally. The love just naturally flows out of us. Nobody has to teach us. Nobody has to ask us. Nobody has to convince us. It just happens. How wonderful it would be if we could always love, cherish, and appreciate our children as gorgeous, loving, angels. How great it would be to carry our love with us and maintain it powerfully forever. We can do that. We simply need to be nudged to remember. We just need to be reminded what we hold dear and precious. We only need to take time out for a few moments and bask in the memory (and the present moment reality) of what is so amazingly and divinely wonderful about our gifts from the divine. This book is one of those reminders.

Kids Included (Mills & Boon Cherish)

This is a special project that is meant to make us remember the lessons that we're always learning from our little gifts, our toddlers. I created this book as a working notebook. For each point, you will be able to write your ideas, memories, or wishes relating to your little angel. I know that you will have a smile on your face while working on this. Surely, you will enjoy reminiscing about your beautiful children, and all their special moments. Parenthood is a lesson on its own. But the best lessons in parenthood are from our children. Let's cherish them, appreciate them, and recognise their special roles in our lives. Let's love our children purely. Let's protect their innocence, and develop them into being individuals who are self-assured. Our children are the extension of ourselves. If you didn't have the best upbringing, you now have a chance to make the life of your child better. And in that, you will also be healing your younger self.

Daddy Loves You Exactly As You Are!

Unless you've been living under a rock for the past fifty years, you're aware of the many hypotheses that the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was not done by one man. Whether you've read one or a dozen of the books on this topic, there's no way to fully grasp the depth of this conspiracy. For the first time ever, New York Times bestselling authors Jesse Ventura and Dick Russell have teamed up with some of the most respected and influential assassination researchers to put together the ultimate compendium that covers every angle—from the plot to the murder—of JFK. They Killed Our President will not only discuss the most famous of theories, but will also bring to light new and recently discovered information, which together shows that the United States government not only was behind this egregious plot, but took every step to make sure that the truth would not come out. With 2013 marking the fiftieth anniversary of JFK's assassination, this is the perfect time for They Killed Our President to be available to readers. The research and information in this book are unprecedented, and there's nobody better to bring this to everyone's attention than the former governor of Minnesota and US Navy SEAL, Jesse Ventura.

On the Training of Parents

Honoring the Child Spirit is an inspirational, emotional, and prescriptive book that calls upon each of us to recognize and honor the openness, creativity, innocence, and awe of children—and to tap into and pay tribute to the childlike spirit that lies at the heart of us all. Adulthood, according to the late Michael Jackson, is not the be all and end all of growing up and living a worthwhile life. With society's high expectations placed upon maturity and responsibility, we often shut down our curiosity, sense of play, and deep sensitivity. And with this shutting down, we too often fail to recognize and cherish that spirit in our own children—and the world's children—so that they can thrive and flourish as children. With evocative chapters on the childlike qualities most important to Michael Jackson—from Awe and Wonder, Creativity, and Gratitude to Imagination and Security—this heartfelt book gives voice to the eternity of Michael's spirit and how he should be remembered: as someone who tried to live by these childlike qualities. Though far from perfect, it was this attempt to sustain innocence amidst the trappings of fame that became his life's goal.

Being Christian: New Devotional Readings has St. Paul's ambitious goal: to present every person perfect in Christ. With that in mind, this wide-ranging devotional is full of strong texts and short teaching, all organized into bite-size readings. You will find applicable wisdom on every page, as Being Christian is the product of Jim Wilson's practical advice and scriptural meditation over the past thirty-five years. Throughout every chapter you will read a huge variety of powerful, concentrated Scriptures, covering fundamental topics like prayer, evangelism, everyday holiness, joy, love, family, and (of course) what it means to be a Christian. "Strong teaching makes strong Christians. And it makes soft-hearted, tender, loving Christians. But soft teaching makes hard, callused Christians. Soft teaching is for people who have itching ears. They do not wish to have their lives interfered with." ~ Jim Wilson, from the Preface

Positive Affirmations for Black Women

The time is not perhaps far distant when few will believe in miracles who do not also believe in an infallible Church; and then, such books as the present will appeal to a larger circle. But, as things are, the author would beg all those who worship a miraculous Christ without doubt and difficulty to pause here and read no further. The book is not intended for them; it is intended for those alone to whom it is dedicated, "the doubters of this generation." For there are some who feel drawn towards the worship of Christ by love and reverence, yet repelled by an apparently inextricable connection of the story of Christ with a miraculous element which, in their minds, throws a doubt over the whole of His acts, His doctrine, His character, and even His existence. Others, who worship Christ, worship Him insecurely and tremulously. They assume that their faith must rest on the basis of the Bible miracles; and at times they cannot quite suppress a thrill of doubt and terror lest some horrible discovery of fresh truth, resulting in the destruction of the miraculous element of the Bible, may impair their right to regard Christ as "anything better than a mere man." It is to these two classes—the would-be worshippers and the doubtful worshippers of Christ—that the following Letters are addressed by one who has for many years found peace and salvation in the worship of a nonmiraculous Christ.

Mommy Loves You Exactly As You Are!

Created in Love is a book for and about children. It is a book that celebrates the gift of God, our children. This is a book that every parent will enjoy reading to their children and every child will cherish the special message. All children are created in love, for God is the creator. No matter the race, gender or special challenge, this book teaches children to love and value who they are and the uniqueness in which they were made. In addition, this is a wonderful teaching book for children who are learning to count and read. Created in love should be a part of every family's library.

Honoring the Child Spirit

Without being taught about body boundaries, a child may be too young to understand when abuse is happening—or that it's wrong. This straightforward, gentle book offers a tool parents, teachers, and counselors can use to help children feel, be, and stay safe. The rhyming story and simple, friendly illustrations provide a way to sensitively share and discuss the topic, guiding young children to understand that their private parts belong to them alone. The overriding message of My Body Belongs to Me is that if someone touches your private parts, tell your mom, your dad, your teacher, or another safe adult.

Being Christian: New Devotional Readings

Book Review Author Advocates Healthy Lifestyle and Disease Prevention to start from the Womb and dieting to begin in the Crib New Health Book, written in easy-to-understand laymans term, provides thought-provoking and valuable health reference designed to change lives of individuals and society as a whole through good pre-emptive and proactive social initiatives and more responsible parenting for healthy lifestyle and disease prevention, which the cardiac surgeon author says must start in the womb and safe dieting should begin in the crib, to maximize their full potential in achieving their goals. XLIBRIS - (PRWEB) August 29, 2011 What is the best strategy to prevent diseases? Cardiac Surgeon Emeritus in Northwest Indiana Dr. Philip S. Chua attempts to provide resolution to this issue as he presents Lets Stop Killing Our Children, a valuable, inspiring, and innovative 794-page health guide that focuses on disease prevention starting from ground zero, and highlights the fundamental obligation parents and society have in teaching children how to life a healthy lifestyle by setting good examples early on. This revolutionary concept puts the onus squarely on society, parents and guardians of young children, who are totally at the mercy of society and of these adults, whose good or bad examples, habits and behaviors will inevitably be emulated by the children. It is in the first five formative years of the children and up to age 12 when instilling proper discipline and behavioral modification are most effective, states this heart surgeon. Almost all diseases known to man are self-induced and are, therefore, preventable Most of us seemed to have unwittingly programmed our mindset and behavior to a self-destruct and slow-suicide mode this negative surrender and fatalistic attitude are what this book aims to change, Dr. Chua critically pointed out in his book. An international health advocate and writer, Dr. Philip S. Chua, in this book of information, philosophy and principles, poses this great challenge to society as a whole in his belief that most diseases known to man are self-induced through self-abuse. It is important that both society as a whole and parents play their essential role of doing what is right for the children, way before age 5 to save these young lives from avoidable morbidity and premature death as they grow to middle age and beyond. After all, says Dr. Chua, the race does not start in the middle. The author points out that autopsy findings on children, as young as 4-5 who were victims of accidents, already had evidence of arteriosclerosis (hardening of their arteries) which we see in adults we must be doing something wrong. "Are we losing the war on diseases because we are starting late and lagging far behind in this race?" ponders the cardiac surgeon. Dr. Chua, in his book, strongly suggests for parents and society as a whole to practice this novel pre-emptive and proactive health concept even before conception to achieve a healthier family, a healthier citizenry, and thus a healthier nation. "Since, we have not really significantly succeeded in our war against many diseases over the past half a century, the medical community and society as a whole need to seriously re-evaluate of our current conventional strategy in dealing with health and disease prevention, if we are to contain, if not eradicate, the common diseases afflicting man around the world today, including hypertension, obesity, diabetes, heart disease, stroke, and even cancer," admonishes the author. This pre-emptive health strategy could forever change the role of parents and society in our quest for health, well-being, happiness, and longevity. This challenging and stimulating coffee-table book of wisdom is a must-read. Every home deserves one.
