The crystal of dreams has been one of the most well guarded secrets for centuries until now. Now Sasha must work hard and fast to escape the curse of the crystal and her own shame.

The Crystal of Dreams

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD NICK BARRETT was amazed to see a harbor seal swimming close to the Cape Cod shore. But when the seal suddenly vanished in a crashing wave and an oddly dressed boy washed up on the beach, Nick's summer vacation changed in an instant. Why did this boy seem so very different than Nick and his friends? Why did his speech sound so old-fashioned? And why did this boy, Ethan Kemp, have no memory of where he came from? Back in Nick's hometown of Sudbury, Ethan and his new friends try to solve the mystery of his past. They soon find themselves drawn deeply into a century's old puzzle involving a blind hermit, encounters with Babe Ruth and Henry Ford, an evil puppeteer who seeks to control their thoughts, and a crystal pendent whose secret is so powerful that the only solution may be to return to the past to keep it hidden forever. The Crystal of Dreams is a story of time travel and friendship spanning colonial and modern times.

Crystal Dreams

A tender story of new love and new faith, set in late Victorian London. Through the Providence of God, Octavia and Martyn found each other, found love, and found their faith in Christ, and found His purpose for their lives together as man and wife. It would be a love and faith tried in the fires of life and circumstance beyond their control.

The Crystal Dream

When greedy humans ascend the alien Tartan planet to steal their resources, the magical inhabitants of the new world are no pushovers. When the magically powerful Queen of Tartan dies protecting her people, her King decides he needs her back from the dead, and killing her reincarnation, a human girl named Crystal, will be easy. Humans are hated due to their hateful greed so when Crystal is recruited to fight at the King's side, she's about to learn more than she bargained for. With a war and bloodshed coming fast, and the broken heart of a warrior King willing to kill for his plans at her back, will Crystal really survive long enough to find out why her human race has become bloodthirsty demons, and why the inhabitants of Tartan despise her? In this planetary war, whose side are you on?

Fifteen year old Kat had dreamed about a world full of crystals for as long as she could remember. It never occurred to her that such a world might actually exist until she found it. And what she found was more than crystals. She found friendship, love, mystery, and murder in a world that had been torn apart long ago in The Shattering.

Crystal Children reflect the new generation that has come to the Earth plane after the Indigo Children. They are approximately ages 0 through 5, although some members of the first wave of Crystal Children are as old as 7. These children are like Indigos—highly psychic and sensitive—but without the dark edge and the anger energy. The term Crystal Children is already taking hold worldwide, and people everywhere are talking about these special kids. Since Doreen is the only researcher who is publicly giving speeches on the subject, her audiences have been asking her for a book on the topic. It's a natural sequel to her book The Care and Feeding of Indigo Children. As babies, Crystal Children may take longer than normal to begin talking. They are highly telepathic, and their tuned-in mothers communicate with them nonverbally. Because they're so sensitive, the Crystal Children babies may fuss and cry a lot in crowded places. They're also very fond of nature. Doreen once watched one Crystal Child walk from tree to tree, giving each one a big hug. Crystal Children are beautiful inside and out, like magnificent little high-priests and priestesses. One look in their eyes, and you'll recognize Divine love and wisdom. Their auras are bright, radiant, and opalescent—they seem to glow from the inside! They talk about past lives, distant galaxies, and profound insights concerning peace and love. Most Crystal Children's parents are aware that their kids are special, and they're thrilled to be parenting such delightful children. The book includes many interviews with Crystal Children, their parents, and teachers. It discusses parenting and teaching methods that are essential to keeping these children happy and healthy, and how to avoid pitfalls that could spoil their special gifts.

For those who love to adventure... This STUNNING debut novel will captivate your imagination and immerse you in its magical, fantasy adventure world. My name is Rose and I have a question for you. Have you ever been transformed into a horse or a unicorn? How about a dragon or an eagle or even a dolphin for that matter? Have you ever been transported into a strange new world? Well let me tell you, it's AMAZING!! I should know because it happened to me, my brother and some of our friends. You see I always knew that I was different, even when I was very little. There were always clues, but the biggest clue of all were the dreams that I had had for as long as I can remember. Flying horses, talking lions, fire breathing dragons, you name it! Some people might say 'everyone has dreams', which of course is true. The thing is, my dreams actually came true. It all started when I began dreaming about that house when I was eight years old. The house that I could see in every detail and how it was surrounded by vast woodland. I told my mum and dad about it. Well I thought they were my mum and dad, and they showed me an old photograph of the house for real that they had kept hidden away from me since I was a baby. That was when they told me I was adopted. I wasn't really shocked or upset. It was like somehow I had always known. It only made me more determined to find out who my real parents were and where they came from, and I knew that house would lead me to the answer. Fast forward five years and we all went away for a holiday down to the coast. We stayed in that very same house. That is where we found the cave in the woods and more importantly, the crystals buried inside it that we took back to the house. Now that would have been the end of it under normal circumstances; if this was just a normal wood that we had walked through; and if we had just found a normal cave, with normal crystals. But the truth was it was not a normal wood, it was not a normal cave and the crystals we had found most certainly were not just any old crystals. In fact, that night, as we lay there sleeping outside in the garden in our sleeping bags and the night moved on into the quietest hour, when the only sounds that could be heard were the rustling of the trees and the creatures scampering around who lived in them, something amazing started to happen. One by one each of the crystals inside our sleeping bags started to glow and a light matching the colour of each crystal surrounded each one of us. Gradually, inside each light the shape of different animals started to appear. First an eagle unmistakably appeared above Violet's sleeping bag, followed by a butterfly above Alex's. Next a dolphin was clearly visible above Ruby. A deer over Issy and a duck above Callum. Finally a dragon appeared above my brother George and a horse above me. The animals were fully formed and were the same colour as the light from each of the crystals. Then the animals began to merge with each of us, entwined into a beam of light from the black crystal and gradually we started floating one by one up into the sky, inside the beam of light. Around the garden the light faded and to our parents we still appeared to be laying there sleeping but at the same time we were being carried off, each inside a fantastic animal speeding up through a tunnel of light, heading into the unknown. This is the story of what happened next inside that wonderful world and how I discovered The Magical Secret of the Crystal Kingdom.

This story should appeal to children of all ages. It emphasizes positive results by using such virtues as honesty, love, sharing, perseverance and strength. It also stresses the effects of global warming-a current concern of children today. Tales of the Crystal Cave tells the story of the elves who were responsible for the building of Santa's workshop. This fantasy was originally written as a bedtime story. With that purpose in mind many chapters end with a suggestion of comforting sleep and happy dreams. However, the dangers, adventures, different environments and unusual characters they encounter add humour, sensitivity and excitement to the story. The problems they encounter often compare to those facing children today. The crystal tools they carry, representing different virtues, are the reason for this title Tales of the Crystal Cave
