Hillard and Botting's Latin Compendium

For the first time, Hillard & Botting's elementary Latin exercises have been collected into a single volume. Thoroughly revised for the 21st century, this book is an invaluable addition to any beginner's bookshelf, covering both Latin-to-English translation and English-to-Latin composition from the very basics (amo, amas, amat). In a tradition stretching back over a hundred years, Hillard & Botting have guided generations of Latin students along the path to fluency, pausing on the journey to read the stories that were left to us over 2000 years ago. Classical scholars of any age will find these exercises are the natural prelude to North & Hillard's canonical textbook, and a solid basis for GCSE exam success.

Answering the calls made to overcome methodological nationalism, this volume is the first examination of the links between corruption and imperial rule in the modern world. It does so through a set of original studies that examine the multi-layered nature of corruption in four different empires (Great Britain, Spain, the Netherlands and France) and their possessions in Asia, the Caribbean, Latin America and Africa. It offers a key read for scholars interested in the fields of corruption, colonialism/empire and global history. The chapters 'Introduction: Corruption, Empire and Colonialism in the Modern Era: Towards a Global Perspective', "'Corrupt and rapacious": Colonial Spanish-American past through the eyes of early nineteenth century contemporaries. A contribution from the history of emotions', and 'Colonial Normativity? Corruption in the Dutch-Indonesian Relationship in the Nineteenth and Early-Twentieth Centuries' are Open Access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com.
