The Lone Star Ranger Zane Grey

Betty Zane's great-grandnephew, the author Zane Grey, wrote a historical novel about her, titled Betty Zane. One of the main events in the story is the tale of Zane's fetching gunpowder from the family cabin. When Grey could not find a publisher for the book, he published it himself in 1903 using his wife's money. Grey later named his daughter Betty Zane after his famous aunt.

The Lone Star Ranger

Zane Grey fished up to 300 days a year. But, with all that time on the water there was nothing more exciting or more compelling than the really BIG fish-- the giants of the sea. Blue fin tuna are (even today) still sometimes pursued with harpoons!

The Zane Trilogy

Accidentally overhearing a plot to kidnap the niece of a prominent rancher as she arrives from the East, Milt Dale springs into action. He comes out of his splendid isolation to protect Helen and her kid sister, Bo. Leading them away from manmade danger, exposing them to unaccustomed rigor on mountain trails, Dale imparts his rugged philosophy. Beyond the forest, Beasley and Snake Anson are still waiting to carry out their evil plot.

Billboard

"Man of the Forest involves a young lady (Verna Hillie) who is captured by a band of outlaws led by Clint Beasley (Noah Beery). Brett Dale (Randolph Scott) figures out their plan and rescues her."

Code of the West. Zane Grey. Georgianna Stockwell, a free-spirited young woman from the East, moves to the wilds of the Tonto Basin in Arizona and she creates a violent culture clash. She revels in a whirlwind of flirtations and coquetry, outraging the proud Western folk and violating their Code of Honour. Her presence is provocative to all young men in the Basin, but to Cal Thurman in particular she is like a firebrand in prairie grass. Through Cal she finds a love she does not expect - and a heritage of violence she cannot control.

Zane Grey - the Man of the Forest

Hot-blooded Georgiana Stockwell will break a man's heart while he's eating out of her hand. Moving from the East to join her schoolteacher sister in the rugged wilds of Tonto Basin, Arizona, Georgiana makes quite an impression. Despite her sister's best efforts, Georgiana creates a culture clash as her modern, free-spirited personality comes up against the code of the West, the unwritten law of the range that everyone is expected to follow. Georgiana's flirtations and coquetry provoke and outrage the proud Westerners of Tonto Basin. The young and steadfast Cal Thurman is especially taken with Georgiana. Cal is a man of the West through and through, courageous, loyal, sincere, quiet-spoken, and hardworking. Though she never expected to, Georgiana finds herself falling for this man from another world. But things are not as simple as either of them may want; Georgiana soon realizes that loving Cal means coming up against a heritage of honor and violence she couldn't have imagined. She's stirred things up too much, and the pride of the West must be satisfied before things can be settled.

The Border Legion - Publishing People Series

A bumper collection of three classic Zane Grey Western adventures: Riders of the Purple Sage, The Trail Driver, and Rangers of the Lone Star. This collection of classic Zane Grey Western adventures comprises three of his most famous bestsellers. Riders of the Purple Sage is a thrilling saga set in the Utah/Arizona border country, featuring a despicable villain and a straight-shootin' hero in a tale of passion, rivalry and revenge. The Trail Driver harbours a bizarre secret - a heroine disguised as a boy - among a cast of hard-bitten, weather-beaten characters driving four thousand head of cattle north out of Texas, braving the weather, marauding outlaws and hostile Indians along the way. Rangers of the Lone Star has Texas Ranger Russ Sittell working undercover on a ranch to break a rustling ring, a dangerous assignment made all the more hazardous by the fact that the ranch owner is the local Mayor, a powerful man who doesn't take kindly to interfering strangers. For Western fans who have ridden before with Zane Grey, these three epic tales are a perfect way to get back in the saddle, and for any greenhorn cow pokes, this is a sure-fire way to sample a little of life in the wild west.

The Best of Zane Grey

Lucy Watson, a young schoolteacher, is appointed welfare instructor in a community of isolated backwoods folk. She quickly overcomes their fears, and achieves popularity by the practical results of her work. She is especially successful with a strong, uncouth bee-hunter. Zane Grey's handling of these primitive characters is robust and understanding.

The Lone Star Ranger

A novel and a selection of stories from Zane Grey, the famous author of westerns. Some of the stories have a western setting, but, the content varies with tales of fishes, a horse chase, a dog story and adventure stories.

I loved outdoor life and hunting. Some way a grizzly bear would come in when I tried to explain forestry to my brother. "Hunting grizzlies!" he cried. "Why, Ken, father says you've been reading dime novels." "Just wait, Hal, till he comes out here. I'll show him that forestry isn't just bear-hunting."
