The Inconsiderate Waiter

Frequently

Speak of a waiter

Someone had startled me

We have a waiter

He never presumed to

He was like

I detest oysters

To do William justice

For what he was

I lay back

I saw a little girl

How dare you William

He stared at me

pointing to the girl

William

Sir

That was a Liberty

Begging

When

Lately

After a pause

She nodded twice

He answered flushing

How can you know

I saw her

She is a little better

At any rate

So accustomed

The smoking room

The ladder

I hit against a member

So afraid was I

I forbade your speaking

Now everyone knows that

The highly improper words

Middleton Finch replied

I replied lightly

I realized that I had

I remembered Williams remark that

The girl whose nods had

A boy was passing

She replied and went

Later in the evening

I said blushing

Jenny signed to the window

I dared not withdraw

I will tell why

He ran into me

So I watched him

Then curiosity put me

I discharged my cab

He nodded and beckoned

He had come

I was miserable
I left the club
I said shocked
I asked cynically
Its morning
Thats my mother
She said
Thats the kid
The girl explained
I watch her
Have you had them
Heartlessly child
Is he soft
There can be no difference
He tells her things
He cannot say that
The doctor sometimes Nonsense
I had read
arranged that the girl
at the club
the pretty gentleman
perk
through for

I delivered
Sir William cried
Goodbye William
Back in Drury Lane

I have an uncomfortable suspicion
