#black soldiers revolutionary war #african american patriots #integrated continental army #revolutionary war black history #fight for freedom american revolution

During the American Revolution, Black individuals, both free and enslaved, played a crucial and often overlooked role in the Continental Army. Many served in integrated units, fighting for ideals of liberty and independence even as they faced systemic racism and the denial of their own freedom. Their valor and contributions were vital to the American cause, leaving an indelible mark on the nation's founding narrative.
