Love, Animals & Miracles

Dr. Bernie Siegel has long observed how relationships with animals have helped his patients, alleviating their suffering and heartbreak. Now, he's gathered many inspiring true stories, including delightful tales from the "Siegel Family Zoo" where "squawks, purrs, chirrups, squeaks, barks, and so on" fill the house. Other stories reveal animals as teachers and messengers, doctors and nurses, healers and miracle workers, and often as guileless clowns. Bernie writes that animals are here to show us how to be nonjudgmental and live better, healthier lives. Let these stories teach you, and apply their lessons to your daily life. If you have an animal, an appreciation for the inspirational, or simply the need for a smile, you'll treasure this celebration of animals as a source of love, wisdom, and miracles. A portion of the publisher's proceeds from this book will aid Ark Angel Society.

If Only They Could Talk

Welcome to Spring Farm, where animals and people come together -- to explore their own natural ability to communicate with each other.... Something magical is happening on a small farm in upstate New York. Animals of all shapes and sizes are living side by side -- talking, listening, learning, and loving -- along with caring people who have come to learn the secrets of interspecies communication.

It's a gift that all of us are born with, as long as we're willing to open our hearts and minds to the gentle creatures who share our world. This is what happened at Spring Farm when two very special women gave shelter to animals that were sick or abandoned. As trust and affection grew between them, so did their capacity to exchange feelings and thoughts. Today, the miracle of Spring Farm CARES is shared through communication workshops for visitors, students, and animal lovers. So come discover the magic of Spring Farm. Humans are more than welcome.... You'll meet Ricardo the duck, who explains that he won't leave his warm nest in a nearby chimney even if the house owners disapprove...Chubby the horse, who shares her feelings of despair when her barn catches fire...Elvis the kitten, who wiggles like a rock star...Sugar the Shetland pony, who dedicates a poem to her long-lost herd...and a whole menagerie of mouse-friendly cats, loving llamas, gregarious guinea pigs, delightful dogs, and other amazing critters.

A Book of Miracles

Heartwarming and Heart-Opening Stories Gathered from Decades of Medical Practice Bernie Siegel first wrote about miracles when he was a practicing surgeon and founded Exceptional Cancer Patients, a groundbreaking synthesis of group, individual, dream, and art therapy that provided patients with a "carefrontation." Compiled during his more than thirty years of practice, speaking, and teaching, the stories in these pages are riveting, warm, and belief expanding. Their subjects include a girl whose baby brother helped her overcome anorexia, a woman whose cancer helped her heal by teaching her to stand up for herself, and a family that was saved from a burning house by bats. Without diminishing the reality of pain and hardship, the stories show real people turning crisis into blessing by responding to adversity in ways that empower and heal. They demonstrate what we are capable of and show us that we can achieve miracles as we confront life's difficulties.

The Little Book of Puppy Love

A heartwarming collection of stories about the dogs, cats and pets who have touched the lives of those around them Sometimes, animals come into our lives just when we need them most. In these true stories about the powerful connections between people and pets, Jo Coudert and Jennifer Basye Sander uncover the simple joys of loving and being loved by our four-legged companions. In this book you'll meet the German shepherd with a special sense for comforting the sick; the loyal dog who risks his own life to rescue a drowning boy; the troublesome rabbit who warms her way into a new family; the chatty parrot who brings joy to the home of a lonely widow; the abandoned horse and foster child who rescue each other; and many, many more. These animals don't just bring us comfort—they save our lives. Coudert and Sander celebrate the everyday miracles that happen when we form bonds with animals. This new edition combines two charming collections—The Dog Who Healed a Family and The Dog with the Old Soul —into one beautiful gift-worthy hardcover package.

ANIMAL MIRACLES OF THE GOD KIND

Animal Miracles of the God Kind contains over seventy inspirational stories of God's love for man and animals. Some stories contain supernatural dreams and visions. There are other accounts of miraculous rescues by those who care deeply for God's creatures. Some stories speak of angels and some are by noted ministers and those God has gifted with a heavenly presence. The stories are accompanied by over 200 scriptures revealing Biblical truths many are unaware of. Animal Miracles of the God Kind offers joy, comfort and assurance of God's eternal covenant with man and animals. Most of all it speaks of God, His son Jesus Christ, and their sacrificial love for all creation. Animal Miracles of the God Kind, written by Dr. Mary Buddemeyer-Porter, is a great example of God's grace and love for His creation. We see this in the wonderful testimonies in this book as well as the combination of God's Holy Word. The use of scripture showing that our four-legged friends are eternal is not only factual, but heartwarming as well. Bishop Dr. D. Schmidt, CPC, Ph.D. President Crossroads Theological Seminary Mary Buddemeyer-Porter's latest book, Animal Miracles of the God Kind, continues along the journey Mary started with Will I See Fido in Heaven? We read once again how much God cares for His animal kingdom that He created for His glory. But, this time, we also read about the special miracles that God allows for them. For anyone who has doubted the immortality of animals and how far God goes to provide for them, then you'll want to read this book! For those of you who don't doubt, this book will reaffirm what you already know about the providence of God for ALL His creatures! Dr. Kim Bloomer Veterinary naturopath, author Host of "Animal Talk Naturally"

The Miracle of Love

When her daughter was a toddler, Ondine Sherman felt like her life was complete. She was married to a man she adored, had a loving extended family and was living her dream of doing things for animals having set up the animal advocacy organisation, Voiceless. Delighted to find she was pregnant again, she was shocked to find out she was having twins. But never in her wildest dreams could she have envisaged the heartache to come when her twin sons, Dov and Lev, were diagnosed with a rare genetic condition that meant they might never walk or talk. Miracle of Love is Ondine's story of the rollercoaster ride she experienced as doctors tried to work out why her beloved boys weren't meeting the normal milestones. It is also an intimate account of her spiritual journey as she deals with her sons' condition, which ultimately leads to acceptance, love, meaning and a new understanding of 'miracles'.

Angel Animals

The animals who hold a cherished place in our hearts and homes offer inspiring lessons of patience, trust, compassion, healing, and love. The extraordinary true stories in this revised and updated edition of Angel Animals celebrate the spiritual truths we learn from animals, and remind us that miracles do happen. ### The Art of Healing

In 1979, Dr. Bernie S. Siegel, a successful surgeon, took a class from Elisabeth Kübler-Ross that focused on crayon drawing for healing, especially with patients facing life-threatening disease. Siegel incorporated into his practice these techniques — many of which were laughed at by others in the medical community. But his Exceptional Cancer Patients “carefrontation” protocol facilitated healings, often deemed miraculous, and attracted attention. “Dr. Bernie” discovered and shared the fact that while patients might need antibiotics, surgery, radiation, and chemotherapy, their bodies also want to heal. He found that this innate propensity could be aided by unconventional practices, including drawing. Why? Drawing produces symbols often representing the subconscious. Siegel shows how to interpret drawings to help with everything from understanding why we are sick to making treatment decisions and communicating with loved ones. All those facing ill health, and those caring for them, personally and professionally, will welcome the hands-on, patient-proven practices offered here.

Saints of Feather and Fang

From sheepdogs to wombats to coyotes to jellyfish, animals serve important biological roles in the world. But those who love animals know there's more. We know our connection to other creatures is more than fur, scale, or feather deep. In Saints of Feather and Fang, writer and lifelong animal lover Caryn Rivadeneira looks at the ways that animals--from the pets who share our homes to the mysterious creatures of the deep--serve as spiritual guides for our hearts, minds, and souls. Christian scripture teems with mammals, birds, and reptiles, and research on animals' sensory responses suggests that we not only care for our beloved animals but they, at times, care for us. A therapy pony who visits stroke victims, a rescued pit bull who shows restraint, hedgehogs that scurry down highways made just for them: these stories offer entrance to tender, whimsical, and deeply theological reflection on creaturely delight, instinct, curiosity, adaptation, fear, and awe. In them we discover and connect with the God who beckons, rescues, and shelters us with stretched-out wings.

Animals in Heaven?

It is always hard to say good-bye. As Catholics, we know that our human loved ones are called by Christ to join Him in eternity, dwelling in heavenly bliss before God, enlightened by the light of glory, sharing in the fullness of the eternal life Christ has prepared for us. But what about our pets, and the animals that fill the earth and our lives with such special beauty? Does God have a place for them? Where do animals go when they die? Are they just dust? What is the destiny of creation? Does God really care about any of creation besides man? Would God, the Author of all life, cast the non-human creation He called good into nothingness? Isn't it illogical to believe that God would find worthless that which is "hard-wired" to give Him praise? Is it so hard to understand that animals created by God with a particular good would not also have knowledge of their Creator? It is a universal concern for stewards of creation who, in their humanness, consider such questions in their hearts. I write this book as a way to explore tenets of the Catholic faith that address creation; of bringing insight and spiritual truths to animal lovers and lovers of creation; and as evidential support of the truth that all creation was given its order, time, place, and purpose from its Creator, who sustains and preserves it at all times, always!

Monsters and Miracles

Monsters and Miracles is the story of a complex and conflicted warrior for children and animals who changed the consciousness of a nation more than a century ago. As an animal advocate, I love the story of Henry Bergh, founder of the first animal protection society in America. It is simply a must-read for anyone interested in the humane movement and true American heroes. - Rory Freedman, author of Beg and co-author of Skinny Bitch. Henry Bergh is widely thought to have started the animal protection movement in America and now, thanks to Gary Kaskel's intelligent and compelling biography, we know how this came to be. Kaskel paints a detailed and personal portrait of the man who taught us to respect animals. This is an important book that will be on the shelf for years to come—and it's a great read. - Elizabeth Hess, author of Nim Chimpsky: The Chimp Who would Be Human and Lost and Found. Kaskel has woven an urbane and atmospheric tale of New York and Europe in the mid-19th century and an aristocrat's passionate crusade not only to bring America forward on the subject of animal cruelty and children's rights but for meaning and purpose in his own life. - Andrew Gross, author of The Dark Tide and The Blue Zone

Are their spirits watching and protecting us right now? Will they be happy? If you've ever loved and lost a pet, you understand the power of a truly special bond. Animal or human, we are all God's creatures—and the love we share must surely be eternal. In this enlightening book, author Gary Kurz offers surprising and comforting evidence of an animal afterlife. Wagging Tails in Heaven reveals what the Bible says about the souls of animals; how pet angels devote themselves to humanity; what your dog or cat might look like in heaven; and what to expect when you're reunited on a spiritual plane. It also shares amazing firsthand accounts of "ghost pet" visitations, animal communications from beyond, and heartwarming tales of heroism, loyalty, and everlasting love.

Animal, Vegetable, Miracle

Author Barbara Kingsolver and her family abandoned the industrial-food pipeline to live a rural life—vowing that, for one year, they'd only buy food raised in their own neighborhood, grow it themselves, or learn to live without it. ### The Flow of Kittens

Most of us have been to a pet store looking at the kittens and puppies up for adoption. We've watched whole litters of puppies and kittens at play. These tiny balls of fur and fluff briefly stop their antics to stare at us, as we stare lovingly at them. Deep down we wish we could take them all home with us. Have you ever wondered what it would be like to adopt a whole litter of kittens at once? Have you ever wondered what they were thinking? Most of us have a pet cat or dog, maybe two. These pets become a part of our family; we love them, nurture them, put up with them, and cry for them. This book tells the story of our adventures as we adopt a litter of four kittens right from our front porch. The story is told from both my point of view and that of Patches, one of our four kittens. There is a different dynamic raising a whole litter in the house. It's like having a family within a family! These little bundles of high spirited joy lifted our hearts in ways we did not expect, right when we needed it most. Truly little miracles!

Miracle Dogs

Five to seven million companion animals enter shelters every year, and more than half are euthanized due to the lack of space. Professional pet photographer Liz Stavrinos spends much of her time on projects related to animal rescue. Miracle Dogs was born out of her desire to collect and share the stories of the dogs she's met over the years, showcasing the incredible bravery and compassion of both canines and rescuers.

Miracle Paws, a Love Story

Miracle Paws, A Love Story is about a rescued pup that changes the life of four people who are dealing with old wounds, and new opportunities while they rescue animals every day! It is a light romance that focuses on the miracles that happen when you open your heart.

It Just Was a Joy To Be Involved with and They Took the Whole Stage Performance Aspect of this Way Too Seriously and It Became this Campus Phenomenon every Year People Would Line Up for It It Was Very Flattering and It Gave Kids a Chance so a Sense of Excitement of Putting on a Show for People Who Were Then Excited about It I Think that that's One of the Best Things You Can Give

Somebody the Chance To Show Them What It Feels like To Make Other People Get Excited and Happy I Mean that's a Tremendous Gift We Always Try To Involve the Audience whether It Was People with Glow Sticks or Batting a Beach Ball Around or Driving

And There Was So Much Energy and I Do Believe in Giving Credit Where Credit Is Due So in My Typically Visual Way Right if Don and I Were To Split the Success for the Etc He Clearly Gets the Lion's Share of It He Did the Lion's Share of the Work Okay He Had the Lion's Share of the Ideas It Was a Great Teamwork I Think It Was a Great Yang and Yang but It Was More like Yin and Yang and He Deserves that Credit and I Give It to Him because the Utc Is a Wonderful Place and You Know He's Now Running It and He's Taking It Global We'LI Talk about that in a Second Describing the Etc Is Really Hard and I Finally Found a Metaphor

But for the Most Part People Looked at that and Went Wow I Got Ai Got To Pick It Up a Notch I Better Start Thinking about What I'M Saying to People in these Meetings and that Is the Best Best Gift an Educator Can Give Is To Get Somebody To Become Self Reflective so the Etc Was Wonderful but Even the Etc and Even as Don Scales It around the Globe It's Still Very Labor Intensive You Know It's Not Tommy One at a Time It's Not a Research Group Ten at a Time It's Fifty or a Hundred at a Time per Campus Times for Campuses

And I Was Complaining to My Mother about How Hard this Test Was and How Awful It Was and She Just Leaned Over and She Patted Me on the Arm and She Said We Know How You Feel Honey and Remember When Your Father Was Your Age He Was Fighting the Germans after I Got My Phd My Mother Took Great Relish and Introducing Me as this Is My Son He's a Doctor but Not the Kind Who Helps People these Slides Are a Little Bit Dark but When I Was in High School I Decided To Paint My Bedroom I'D Always Wanted a Submarine

And She's Done Wonderful Work Showing that Particularly with Middle School Girls if You Presented as a Storytelling Activity They'Re Perfectly Willing To Learn How To Write Computer Software So all-Time Best Head-Fake Award Goes to Caitlin Kelleher's Dissertation President Cohen When I Told Him I Was Going To Do this Talk He Said Please Tell Them about Having Fun because that's What I Remember You for I Said I Can Do that but It's Kind Of like a Fish Talking about the Importance of Water I Mean I Don't Know How To Not Have Fun Right I'M Dying and I'M Having Fun

Of Miracles and Memories

Wayne and Ann Boucher recount miraculous events from their early lives and fifty years of marriage.

Memories and Miracles

A short while back a friend mentioned to me that he didn't know I was a writer. I told him that I have been a professional truck-driver since 1970, when I was 19 years old and I am not a writer. I am a story-teller. I write the stories I am given, and I appreciate you reading my stories and I hope a few of them hit you where you live and that they may draw you closer to the Lord.

Miracles and Memories

The year was 1985. My husband pastored a small church in Pennsylvania. I helped by singing, playing piano and organ. The congregation had recently suffered a massive drop in membership due to many of the members moving out of state. My husband was discouraged for there were a lot of empty seats staring him in the face as he looked down from his pulpit. Suddenly, the first two rows of pews were full of people dressed in 1940's style of clothing. The women wore large hats, some with flowers, and the men had on suits and ties. They were all very involved in the service, singing along with the song leader and the church was filled with music. I blinked and looked down at the piano. But when I looked up, they were gone, and I realized that God had sent angels to encourage us. If you have doubts about God, I challenge you to read this book. When you realize that God interacts with us today, it might change your life.

Miracles and Memories

"He sent his word and healed me" Psalms 107-20 In the year of 1995 I was in great need of a healing. Doctors were not giving me any hopes of survival. I was told I had three months of less to live. I have been asked many times to write a book on my supernatural healing. I believe this is the appointed time. As I lay in the hospital paralyzed from salmonella blood poisoning with amyloidosis in my liver and multiple myeloma cancer in my bone marrow, Jesus sent me a message by the "Holy Spirit" in a very unique way. This book tells exactly what happened word by word as I heard it. My prayer is that the reader of this book will be blessed and their needs will be met too. My husband Bobby and I have had lots of true stories stored away in our minds just waiting for the appropriate time to share them with you. Bobby's life began in the north Georgia area during the great depression and times were very hard on them being a large family and share cropping. I was born in rural middle Georgia in the same era. This book is filled with both of our memories in short stories which contain both happiness and sadness. We hope it will encourage our readers that anyone can overcome poverty and all the things that would distract them from accomplishing their goals in life. And trust God that all things work together for good to those that love him. Part 1-Supernatural Healing Part 2-Gertrude's memories and family life Part 3-Bobby's memories and family life Part 4-Family Photo Album

The New York Times bestselling author of Many Lives, Many Masters, Brian Weiss MD delivers a powerful revolutionary teaching on the physical, emotional and spiritual healing available to all through embracing the reality of reincarnation. Filled with incredible true stories, Sometimes Miracles Happen is a remarkable teaching tool that can be used by all to improve their lives, to evolve along their spiritual paths, to experience more joy, love and happiness in the present moment, and to ultimately understand that there is no need to fear death as we are all immortal and innately spiritual beings. Dr Brian Weiss' conversion from skepticism towards reincarnation to confirmed belief has had a profound effect worldwide. Now Brian's readers complete the cycle as they explain how his works allowed them to understand the 'space between lives'. Each story is used to illustrate practical lessons for how you too can comprehend this revelation and draws upon Brian's and his daughter Amy's practices as past-life regression experts. Our past lives are the key to a blissful, secure future and this book is the ultimate guide from two of its top practitioners.

Memories and Miracles

"In this memoir, written at age ninety-five, Fanny recounts her inspirational and emotional story, its historical context, and her observations on the human condition. She narrates her heartbreaking and triumphant memories, her belief in miracles, and the insights and meaning she draws from those experiences. Fanny's mission is to ensure the Holocaust is never forgotten and never repeated. Never again should hate drive human behavior to devalue human life. Never again should the world stand by and observe such atrocities. "

Blessings, Miracles, and Memories

Shalom, Mary'am was just one of the carefree young girls who went to the well at dawn to fetch water for her family. I noticed her because she seemed unusually sweet and innocent. No one knew what to think when she fled so suddenly to Elizabeth's place in Ain Karim. Rumor had it that she had seen an angel but I didn't put too much stock in that. After all, she was young and impressionable. But when she came back, obviously pregnant, how the eyebrows rose. I observed her from a distance all through the years and heard about the remarkable flight to Egypt when all the other boys, except hers, had been slaughtered in Bethlehem. They had such a fine little lad, his name was Yeshua, a person couldn't help loving him. I could tell she was sure wrapped up in her children, especially that boy. I had to scratch my head a few times, though, when he started doing miracles--pretty uncanny, that! But his preaching, well, that had a way of touching the heart. That same heart nearly broke when I saw her grief when her boy was crucified. I'm just a poor country baker but I'll vouch for her story. It's written from the heart to the heart. Mazel Tov. (May you be showered with many blessings)

Memories and Miracles

CELEBRATING 80th YEAR OF LIFE TOGETHER! This memoir begins with the history of nine generations of the Voss family. For nearly 200 years, like most Jews in Germany, they lived in peace. Then, in 1933, the Nazi government came to power and denied Jews the right to live in Germany. Two brothers, Emil ("Ed") and Fred Voss, escaped Germany with their parents and one grandmother, but not before suffering as victims of the persecution against Jews. In this book, Fred Voss includes his brother's memories and his own, tracing the story of how they found their freedom again in the United States of America. This edition has been updated from 2004 to 2019, the 80th year of Fred & Ilse's life together. Fred died in 2019, at age 99. A portion of the royalties are donated to organizations dedicated to preserving the memory of the Holocaust through living actions. Praise for Miracles, Milestones, and Memories: "A powerful, haunting book revealing how the Voss and Machauf families were betrayed by friends, neighbors, teachers and governments. Shining through the horrors of the Holocaust is a wonderful love story of two people who endured great suffering and loss but emerged determined to create a new life." Carolyn J. McPherson, Authorized Minister, United Church of Christ, Ithaca, New York "For students of the Holocaust, both young and old, the unifying theme throughout Miracles, Milestones, and Memories is one of love -- love of family and friends who were lost and found during this horrific period in history. While learning about the terrible outcomes of intolerance, readers will also witness a life-long love story ... of Ilse and Fred. The book tells a beautiful story of hope, survival, and prevailing love that will not be forgotten." Kim A. K. Hassinger, Language Arts teacher, Selinsgrove Middle School, Pennsylvania "An affecting and powerful memoir of the Voss and Machauf families, whose stories draw the reader into prewar Jewish life in Germany and Vienna. Fred Voss's voice shines through as though we are sitting in an armchair alongside him, leafing through family photos as he describes the shock and horror of life under the Nazis.... A bittersweet and important achievement." Rabbi Joan Pitzele Sacks, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania "Through personal chronology, Fred Voss reveals the powerful and destructive forces of fascism and hate as he recounts his poignant memories. Embedded in details about historical reality, the family stories offer truth and insight about the impact of Nazi rule by the people who experienced it firsthand. Each page provides the reader with an intimate connection with the time period and how a family sustained itself through courage and a deep commitment to tolerance and a better world." Cindy Kramer, Social Studies teacher, Ithaca City School District, New York

The Horse Trainer's Daughter

We are in this world together. Let us warrior on together in the Lord. In my memoir, Memories, Miracles, and Musings, I share some speed bumps, potholes, and mountaintop experiences, hoping to encourage you. At the end of each chapter, I offer some thoughts for you to ponder in growing your faith-to bring more Christ into your life. I would rather spend my time encouraging others instead of bemoaning the speed bumps of life. You can choose to be a victim, or you can choose to be a victor. Both require energy, but living a victorious life is energy well spent. How will you spend your energy? Are you struggling with something and seeking God for the answer? Do you consider yourself as being punished by God? Whatever you are feeling, know that God loves you. He is pleased that we come to Him when we are struggling. If you are in Christ, you, my friend, are a mighty warrior. Come, let's journey together. Let's be mighty warriors for Christ together.

Memories of Miracles in Africa

We have been advised to "Keep a history . . . of all things that transpire" (D&C 85:1). I hope that my record will have longterm value for our children, their spouses, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. I have tried to express my gratitude and goals, and deep love, for each member of this remarkable family. I have described our beliefs, traditions, successes, challenges, and the special miracles that we have experienced. We have been blessed, with many great events in our lives and at times in which we have felt divine guidance and influence, for which we are very grateful. This history has given me an opportunity to relive memorable experiences and learn more about myself and what I consider to be the most important aspects of mortal life and my eternal potential. I hope that my history helps those that I love understand me better and influences their lives.

A Vow Fulfilled: The Fran Laufer Story - Memories and Miracles tells of the wonder at the bravery, the tenacity, and G-d's ever-present guiding hand that have defined Fran Laufer through the darkest periods of history - and of her life. Fran's triumphal spirit - her sole inheritance from her parents and grandparents - traveled with her across the Atlantic and helped her forge a new life as a young wife and mother in a strange land. It is the spirit that saw Fran travel to the Far East in search of Objet d'art for the renowned Fran Laufer Collection. It is the unyielding spirit of a woman who built a dynasty with her husband, and enabled her to spearhead numerous causes, support Jewish institutions, and build yeshivahs and synagogues that would be her legacy: Bikur Cholim in New York, Young Israel of Hillcrest and Deerfield Beach, the Great Synagogue in Jerusalem, Bobov, Mesivtha Tifereth Jerusalem, and many more. A Vow Fulfilled is a story of hope amidst horror, of love flowering in a wasteland. It's a testimony to a life brimming with love - of family, community, and the Jewish people. It's the legacy of a young woman's dreams - and a vow fulfilled.
