

The October Horse

#October Horse #Ancient Roman ritual #Equus October #horse sacrifice Rome #Roman religious practices

The October Horse was a unique and enigmatic ancient Roman ritual involving the sacrifice of a horse, performed annually on October 15th, likely on the Campus Martius. This ceremony, often linked to the god Mars, held complex and debated meanings, potentially symbolizing fertility, military triumph, or purification as the harvest season concluded, offering a fascinating glimpse into Roman religious practices.
