This Is a Topic That Has Been Very Interesting to Me for a Number of Years and I Realized Recently that At Least at this Moment in Los Angeles that I Was Carrying Around in My Head More Information about this More Details and Probably Anybody Else That I Knew So I Thought that Was a Great Opportunity To Share this with You and Hopefully Couldyou Is Equally Excited about this So Let's Begin So I'M Going To Be Talking about Hilma of Klimt as You all Know and We'LI Be Talking about the

Complications of Her Story and the Story That I Think Circulates in a Lot of Places Right Now Today so the First Thing I Want To Kind Of Address Is Why Me Like What Makes My Particular Perspective on this Different than Other People

They Do all Kinds of Sketches and Studies from Life They Would Have a Model Come In and They Would Draw Her with Costumes They Would Find the Items They Would Figure Out every Piece of this They Would Do Studies in Color They Would Do Studies in Greyscale and Then Finally They Would Execute the Piece so It Was a Real Observable Studio Production I'M Also from the Same Year as this Piece by Paul Gauguin this Is a Vision after the Sermon this Is a Much More Modest Piece It's About Two Foot by Three Foot and You Can Already See this Is a Very Different Style of Work Go Ganas Often Times Connected to Several Different Movements Sometimes this Is Considered a Symbolist Work It Does Not Depict Reality

So I'M GonNa Come Back to this One a Couple of Times because I Think that There's Several Things That Are Happening in this Illustration Which Will Open Up into Other Aspects of Her Practice Later on so Here Note the Spiral and You Might Be Able To See It from Where You Are but if Not She Writes the Word Evolution on this One Three or Four Times in the Background so these Kinds of Things Were Probably Done Right these Illustrations Would Have Been Done Flat on a Table Right They Might Have Used Something like this Which Is like a Planchette but It's Wheeled

He Actually Also Doesn't Show this Work Immediately but Turns It Over and Puts It Away in His Studio because He Feels like It's Too Much at the Time this Work Is Not As Big as any of the 10 Largest It's Only Maybe 8 Foot by 7 Also Very Important to this Conversation this Is Vasily Kandinsky the Colorful Life 1907 this Is this as Works About 5 by 6 Feet or So so You See He's He's Never an Academically Trained Artist He's Already Kind of Working in this Kind of Looser Method at this Point but Still Definitely Representational Also Important for Our Conversation Here Is Mondrian

And So in Isis Unveiled in 1877 She Writes Mediumship Is the Opposite of Adept Ship the Medium Is the Passive Instrument of Foreign Influences the Adept Actively Controls Himself and all Inferior Potencies and She Goes On Later in the Kita Theosophy in 1889 To Describe Mediumship Even More Dramatically They Were Now Accepted To Indicate that Abnormal that Abnormal Psycho Physiological State That Leads a Person To Take the Fancies of His Imagination His Hallucinations Real Artificial Four Realities No Entirely Healthy Person on the Physiological and Psychic Planes Can Ever Be a Medium that Which Mediums See Hear and Sense Is Real but Untrue It Is either Gathered from the Astral Plane

In 1914 We Know that She Exhibits Her Naturalistic Paintings at the Baltic Exhibition in Malmo and Also in that Same Exhibition Kandinsky Shows some of His Abstract Works this Is from that Exhibition those Are Convinced Keys Works on the Walls this Is the Catalog Register from that Same Exhibition You Can See Hilma's Names Up There on the Top Left with the One Work That She Displayed and Lower on the Right Side Is Kandinsky His Name As Well Also during this Time Period 1915 this Is When She Completes the Altarpiece Series between 1912 and 1915 She Completes Additional 82 Works and Concludes Them with this Series
