The Sovereignty of God

Can something invisible have an image? How are we made in God's image (Genesis 1:27) if He is invisible (Colossians 1:15)?

If one has finished reading the Bible cover to cover, what would you recommend doing to remain in the word? Re-reading it again? What did you do after you read it cover to cover?

Determinism vs. freewill - God's sovereignly determines the available options from which we can freely choose, as our options are not endless. Is this about it?

In Joshua 5:13-15, who is the man referenced as Commander of the army of the Lord?

Why were entire populations put to death with the sword?

Can you explain and elaborate God's perfect will versus God's permissive will?

Why do you think the Bible says Jesus is going to rule with a Rod of Iron?

Why does Heaven speak of having gates and walls?

Where do you see Christianity in America a year from now?

How are we punished and judged if we have murdered but then found Jesus? Isn't that the case with all of us?

Is the man in Daniel 10:5-8 a pre-incarnate appearance of Jesus?

Salvation comes from grace through faith in the finished work on the cross of Jesus Christ, right?

If adultery is a forgivable sin, why then will the church not let a pastor back if I'm asking the Lord for forgiveness?

I struggle with the Gospel message and Calvinism. How can I stop being mad at their view?
